GARDEN UNIT PLANS EARLY BIRD WALK

Members Will Meet Afterwards For Breakfast and Outdoor Garden Talk

An unusual and appropriate program has been arranged for the next meeting of the Birmingham Unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, which will be held May 14. The members will meet at the Cranbrook Institute of Science at 6:30 A. M. for a bird walk to be conducted by Dr. Edward U. Boies and Harold Leraas of the Institute. Invitation will be extended to the husband of members who are interested in birds and wish to accompany their wives. Following the bird walk, there will be a breakfast at Devon Gables, after which Mrs. H. G. Hutchinson will give an outdoor talk on planning in a garden on Suffolk road. Mr. W. H. Hitchcock will be in charge of arrangements for the meeting.
