There are many Starting Feeds but only one STARTENA! Chicks are born with a hunger to live and grow. It's a bunger that means more than filling the tiny crop with feed. It's a hunger for things that will build bone, tissue and feathers. It's a hunger for keeping alive the spark of life and developing little frames into sturdy chicks at six weeks.

PERHAPS it's hard to see the differ- them the things a chick needs - the you can see it in the chicks. They tell They tell you that Purina Startena gave for your supply of Startenal ence in chick/feed at the start. But things so often lacking in ordinary chick feeds. That's why there's only one Startena, and you'll always find it you in life, in pounds, in development. in the Checkerboard Bag. See us today
