EIGHT-AND-FORTY SALON ORGANIZED

Birmingham Women Heads Honor Society Of Legion Auxiliary
In County

Members of American Legion Auxiliary unit at Oak-land County met here last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Gordon L. Bailey, national historian, to form a salon of the Eight-and-Forty, honor society of the Auxiliary. Officers were chosen as follows:

Mrs. Bailey, ex-chapman; Mrs. Don Paton of Ferndale and Mrs. Al Bender of Royal Oak, ex-demichapman; Mrs. Norman Wiseman, Royal Oak, ex-concierger; Mrs. Ivan Royal, Pontiac, ex-archivist; Mrs. Jennie Mordon, Hazel Park, ex-aunomer; Mrs. Herbert Scheller, Royal Oak, ex-secretaire; Mrs. Joseph F. MacGregor, Birmingham, ex-cassiere, and Mrs. Clyde Nordhoff, Rochester, the surintende.

The membership committee is composed of Mrs. Harold Wait of Royal Oak and Mrs. Peck Lewis of Hazel Park. Mrs. Edwin Olsen of Pontiac was named child welfare chairman, and Mrs. Lynn Allen of Pontiac, Mrs. Fred Halbach of Ro-son of Birmingham were appointed to comprise a constitution and by-laws committee.

Tea was served following the meeting. The next meeting will be held May 23 at Mrs. Paton's home in Ferndale. Initiation ceremonies are planned for June 6, with members of Salon No. 10 of Detroit giving the degree and installing the officers.

Dance Pageant To Be Given By Pupils Of Yvonne Gay

YVONNE GAY

Club Notes

Birmingham Scots closed their activities for the season Friday evening with a supper and dance at the K. of P. Hall. About 150 persons were in attendance. The organization will resume its meetings in the fall.

The Birmingham Business Women's Club will hold a dinner meeting at the Community House at 10 o'clock this evening. Mr. Carrie Stoddard will be in charge of the program.

Members of the Birmingham Home Extension Group are planning to attend two meetings in Pontiac next week. The first will be a lecture to be given at 2 P. M. Tuesday in the Pontiac Central Methodist Church by Paul Krone, specialist in floriculture at Michigan State College. The second will be the annual Achievement Day program of the Oakland County Home Extension Group, to be held next Thursday, May 15, also at the Central Methodist Church. The program will be in the form of a review of the work accomplished in the lessons for the year, which have included food budgets, remodeling of clothing, improvement of family life, and reconditioning of fur-ture.

The Pythian Sisters will sponsor a Mother and Daughter banquet at the K. of P. Hall at 6:30 P. M. Monday. The committee in charge includes Mrs. George Baird, chairman, Mrs. Daniel Symons and Mrs. Dale Carter.

The semi-annual rummage sale of the League of St. James' Women will be held Friday and Saturday at the Parish House.

The last meeting of the current season of the Parent-Teacher Association of Pierce School will be held at the school at 3:40 P. M. today. The meeting will follow a Mother's Day program to be presented by the students at 3 P. M. At the meeting, the annual reports of officers will be read, and tea will be served, in charge of Mrs. Mahlon Stevens and Mrs. Harvey Musselman.

Circle G of Holy Name Church will hold a bake sale Saturday at North Woodward avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William McClure, Jr., and daughter, Sylvia, of East Long Lake road, are expected home today or Friday from Miami, Fla., where they have been spending the past six months.

Annual Recital Scheduled For Saturday Evening At High School

A colorful event is scheduled for Saturday evening when Miss Yvonne Gay presents her dancing pupils in their annual spring recital in the auditorium of Baldwin High School. The recital will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

The program will be built along the lines of a pageant, and will be divided into four scenes, closing with a waltz ensemble presented to the strains of "The Beautiful Blue Danube." In these numbers the youthful dancers will represent circus characters, birds, animals, and silhouettes.

Miss Gay, a student of dancing for the past 12 years, has been teaching her art in Birmingham since 1921. Enrolled in her classes at present are more than 200 talented local children, many of whom will take part in the recital. Among those who will participate are:

UNIT ANNOUNCES CONCERT PROGRAM

Glee Club, String Ensemble, Vocal And Piano Syfids Will Participate

Arrangements were nearing completion today for the concert to be given at the Community House at 8:15 P. M. Tuesday under the auspices of the Birmingham unit of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Taking part in the program will be the Chevrolet Male Glee Club under the direction of David Redwood, the Solids String Ensemble, conducted by Otto DePalma, and Mrs. Helen Wagner Neff, Birmingham pianist. Three vocal soloists will appear with the Glee Club.

The Glee Club will contribute four groups of numbers, the first of which will open the program and will include the "Jolly Fellows," "Boys of St. Mary's," by Eugene Loebe, and "Singing Along" by W. M. Cook. This will be followed by a solo by William Mendenhall, and the Glee Club's second group, consisting of Arthur Sullivan's "Lost Chord," the Pilgrims' Chorus, from Wagner's "Tannhauser," and a composition entitled "Morning."

Another vocal solo will be followed by the appearance of the String Ensemble, which will play
"Von Suppe's 'Jolly Koi-bers' overture and selections from Verdi's 'Traviata'. Immediately following an intermission, Mrs.
Neff will play five compositions, including Chopin's "Waltz in A Flat," Casella's "Ballet in A Major" and "Gallipoli Final," and Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in B flat."

The Glee Club's third group will consist of "Rolling Down to Rio" by Edward Grogan, "Home on the Range" by David W. Guion, and Oley Speaks "On the Road to Mandalandy." The program will close with the third vocal solo and the Glee Club's final group, in which will be heard "Tascos of May," "The Rose Tree," "The Gee" by C. F. Chudleigh and the Soldier's Chorus from Gounod's "Faust."

Mrs. Vida Matthews is general chairman of arrangements. Mrs.
Edward A. Hines, Mrs. Frank
Perry, A. Vaughan and Mrs.
Harold H. Carson are in charge of tickets and Mrs. A. D. Conley, Mrs. Charles Culbert, Mrs. Robert Apell, Mrs. Russell Hentz, Mrs.
Edward Appel and Mrs. E. G.
Samuelson will serve as usher-ers at the concert.

Seats are obtainable at Shain's Drug Store and Matthews' Tailor Shop.

Joseph M. Hinchshaw, and Mrs. Vernon C. Fry.

In the garden of Mrs. Clarence H. Booth, as assistant hostesses,

W. Shuell, Mrs. Joseph H. Blender, Mrs. Harry W. Taylor, Mrs.
Otto Kern, Mrs. Walter H. Morley, Mrs. H. J. Poppy, and Mrs.
G. W. Strelinger.

Members of the women's sailing committee of the Orchard Lake Country Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Waldemar P. Adams, on Martell drive, on Monday, to discuss plans for the coming season. Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, is chairman of the committee.
Working with her are Mrs. Harold J. Lauver, who is in charge of luncheons to be given; Mrs.
Reynolds Donovan, secretary; Mrs.
Adams, bulletins, and Mrs. Robert

Club To Honor New Members At Dinner

Several new members of the Birmingham Women Executives Club will be welcomed into the organization at a reception and dinner to be held at the Community House next Thursday evening, May 16.
The reception will begin at 6 P. M. and the dinner will follow at 6:30.
The names of prospective new members were submitted by Mrs.
Anne Casciani, chairman of the membership committee, at a meeting in the Community House last Thursday.

For the meeting next week, Mrs.
George Donaldson, president of the club, has made arrangements for J. A. Hamberstone, of the Ford Motor Company, to speak to the group on Greenfield Village, and other Ford activities. Mrs. Donaldson will be in charge of table decorations and entertainment.

The club has decided to meet regularly every two weeks during the summer, according to Mrs.
Donaldson.

Mr. and Mrs. Legler Paxton of North Cranbrook road entertained a group of their friends at a cocktail party Saturday evening, preceding the opening dance at the Oakland Hills Country Club. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. Hugh Whitely, Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Lester
L. Colbert, Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Mosby, and Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Thomas.
