KINGSWOOD SCENE OF GAY BULL FIGHT

Mexican Note Dominant At Annual Carnival Staged By Hills School

Dauntlessly waving a red flag in the face of a paper-mache bull, students of Kingswood School Cranbrook staged a mock bull fight in the best Mexican manner, and with a typically Mexican back ground, Saturday evening, when the school held its annual carnival.

Capri Cooke and Peggy Anderson safely encased in paper-mache, resisted Madeline Owen, Annabelle Gilmore and Roy Boyd who won their laurels at matadors.

To complete the Mexican scene, rugs draped the walls, and posters made in the old classes of the school were hung on the walls of the gymnasium, where the carnival was staged. Booths exhibiting Mexican rugs and pottery added to the picture, as did the band stand in the center of the room, and the refreshment booth around which clustered senioritas and seniors realistically garbed in Mexican attire.

Among the many spectators noted were Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. McMath, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Godde, Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. S. Marquis, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Ewald, Mr. and Mrs. Neil C. McMath, Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew B. Whittlesey, Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. White, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hargreaves.

Mr. and Mrs. George G. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Werms, Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard Towle, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, Mrs. Paul E. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Hoey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Shuehl, Dr. and Mrs. Campbell Harvey, Dr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hatt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Friedrick, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. P. John, Mrs. Otto Kern and Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Saarinen.

Miss Margaret A. Augur, headmistress of the school, received the guests upstairs. Following the program in the "arena," which included interpretive dances and the bull fight, an orchestra in Mexican garb, provided music for dancing.

Lovely Tea Tables Greet Guests At Bridge In Hills

Chartreuse green theatrical gauze covering the tea table, brass samovars, pale green fruit heaped on an ivory plate, brass candelabra with flickering candles—all these formed part of the lovely picture that greeted the eyes of guests at the bridge tea held Wednesday afternoon at the Guild Hall at Christ Church Cranbrook, sponsored by members of the Women's Auxiliary.

The table so artistically done in green and brass was one of two delightful tables arranged for the tea by Mrs. Sam M. Garber and Mrs. C. Theron Van Dusen. For her table Mrs. Van Dusen chose stunning copper appointments which she arranged on a cover of monks cloth.

Presiding at the tea tables in the course of the afternoon were Mrs. Campbell Harvey, Mrs. Van Dusen, Mrs. W. Hamilton Aulenbach and Mrs. Hugh W. Hiltchcock.

Among the 100 members and guests reserving tables were Mrs. Aulenbach, Mrs. James A. Berens.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bay of Wilmont drive returned Saturday from a sojourn in Philadelphia and New York City, where they attended the automobile show. Mrs. Bay entertained members of the Pappy Club at luncheon Monday.

Birmingham guests of Mr. Frank Scott of The Towers, in Detroit, at luncheon and bridge Tuesday, included Mrs. Howard M. Smith, Mrs. Rockward N. Bullard, Mrs. John R. Heber, Mrs. George E. Raynolds, Mrs. H. Barnard, Mrs. E. Price Kinbrough, and Mrs. J. Arthur Evans.

Mrs. Katherine Vanhey Mills of South Bates street was hostess at breakfast Friday for members of her book group from Detroit and Grosse Pointe. The guests also remained for afternoon tea.

Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond of Willets street entertained a small group of friends at luncheon Wednesday preceding the bridge tea at

JANE KING TO WED AT HOME NUPTIALS

Vows Will Be Spoken At Home Of Bride's Parents Saturday

A simple ceremony will be solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. King on Shirley drive, Saturday, at 12:30 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Jane King, will become the bride of Ronald I. Friedline, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burt I. Friedline of Springfield, Mass.

Miss King will be attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy King, and Dick McGraw of Indianapolis, Ind., will perform the duties of best man for Mr. Friedline. The Rev. Dr. D. Hopkins, pastor of the M. E. church, will read the nuptial service. A wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents will follow the ceremony.

Among the out-of-town guests arriving for the wedding will be Mr. and Mrs. Friedline, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Maston of South Whitley, Ind., maternal grandparents of the bride; Mrs. John E. Gunder of Columbus City, Ind.; Mrs. Paul P. Coble of Indianapolis, Ind.; and Mrs. Magway, also of Indianapolis.

Miss King is a graduate of Baldwin High School, and later attended the University of Indiana. She is a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority. Mr. Friedline was graduated from the same university in June, and is a member of the Theta Chi fraternity.

The young couple will leave after the ceremony for Springfield, where they plan to make their home.
