THIS WAR ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS ANNOUNCE

BUTLER CHARGED IN CRASH WARRANT

Neglicert Homicide Laid To Birmingham Man In Hospital

E. R. Gomberg Informs Women's League At Meeting Monday

At Community House For Rally Monday

TEACHERS DISCUSS SCHOOLS TO LIONS

LARGEST IN 25 YEARS CALL COMMUNITY HOUSE ABOUT BASKETS

DENOUNCES U.S.

Construction Of New Coun Building Seen As Needed Project

PROPERTY OWNERS

TO HEAR PALMER

President Of Michigan Real Estate Association To Speak Dec. 3

Mothers, Veteran Awarded Prizes By The Eccentric

TELL HOW TO KEEP U.S. OUT OF WAR

tion, although an estimated 200 or 250 contributions were originally considered.

The winners are: Student Division

Student Division
Philip Strelinger, Room
206, Grade 8B, Adams
First prize of $6.00.
Wallace McLay, Room

Parent Division
Mrs. A. J. Kiehne, 843
bates St.—First grize of 86.00.
Mrs. J. Howard
dorph, E. Long Lake Rd.—
Second prize of $4.00.
"W. M."—Third prize of $2.50.
"W. M."—Third prize of
second prize of $4.00.
"W. M."—Third prize of
second prize of $4.00.
"While the prize of $4.00.
"While t

ing. Grade 8A, Baldmention in the parent open STUDIO HERE

Campbell, 788 Ann Bandmaster Ernie Scrugg To Supervise First Day To Supervise F... Saturday

My Suggestions For Abolishing War

By PHILIP STRELINGER

How We May Keep U.S. Out Of War

By MRS. A. J. KIEHNE 843 Bates St. First Prize— Parent Essay Contest