

You like to meet people who have word-mouth of personality, don't you?
How splendid to shake the firm hand of another, to warm to his friendly smile, to be made to feel as though you just wanted to shout:
"Boy, here's a person whose kindred spirit reveals something more than a rack to hang clothes on!"

The Birmingham Eccentric

PART

FIFTY-EIGHTH YEAR—NO. 34

BIRMINGHAM, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1935

$2.00 PER YEAR—SINGLE COPIES 5c

Thanksgiving is Here!

Let's discard all cynicism, all Calamity Janes, and all reproachful remarks which look backward rather than forward. This year we really have much for which to give thanks. Let's make it a habit to be thankful all year 'round! The country has pulled out of a mighty tight spot—and the most hard-headed authorities admit that at last, we're turning that desired corner! Let's be optimistic—we have reason to be! Let's give thanks this Thanksgiving with a song in our heart!
