THIS RECEIVE NEW LANDSCAPING

ntiac Nursery Company Handles $25,000 Job North Of City

HIGHWAY PROJECT

OCTOBER 31ST PLANS READY

Birmingham Youth Will Be Guests At Big Celebration

ight of October 31s y known as Hallowe's as Birmingham's

WOUNDED WHILE HUNTING ALONE

BUYING FIRST LIONS TICKETS

EDITOR DOESN'T KNOW HIS WATTS
The new editor at The Birming-ham Eccentric just doesn't know what's what. Or rather, he doesn't know what's what. WORLD WI

VILLAGE PLAYERS IN LIONS PLAY

Volunteer Services Individ-ually For Sweet Charity's Sake

Cubs Ready To Organize

But Can't Find A Sponsor

Cubs are looking for a spon-vot the Chicago Cubs, but the field. B6,—and two new sponsors, division of the Boy Scouts the Episponal church and the ro-merica. Birmineham pack, B3 and B7 respectively.

SPEAKS TO EXCHANGE

MRS. RUTH SPATH TAKEN BY DEATH

Dies In Childbirth Wednes-day Night; Funeral Service Friday Afternoon

Honor Guest Here

BIG BEAVER

DISTRICT GOVER-

Parents Shun War But Students Are Willing To Fight

Questionnaire Results Show 122 Out Of 323 Young People Willing To Fight In Foreign War

ESSAY CONTEST STILL OPEN

nswers to The Birmingham Eccentric's War Questione, circulated Monday throughout the junior and senior schools and among the students' parents, revealed a not difference between adult and youthful attitudes and war. Out of 323 student answers to the question, uld you be willing to take part in a war, or have your

NOR VISITS HERE

Phone 11

The Birmingham Eccentric