House Will Sponsor Sarg Marionettes In Twain Play

Mrs. George T. Hendrie Heads Committee In Charge Of Arrangements

Tony Sarg's celebrated marionettes will come to Birmingham Thursday, Nov. 14, to make their dramatic debut in the Community House in Mark Twain's story, "A Yankee in King Arthur's Court." The advent of the marionettes will mark the initial program in a series to be offered at the House this season under auspices of the Franchise-Mortgage Committee, a campaign to win out the final indebtedness for the House.

Mrs. George T. Hendrie is chairman of the organization committee in charge of arrangements for the Sarg production. Assisting Mrs. Hendrie will be a committee composed of members of the executive board and an auxiliary group in which are Mrs. Raymond R. White, Mrs. William C. Byers, Mrs. Lewis H. Sargent, Mrs. Louis Kahn, Mrs. Charles F. Dye, Mrs. Earl G. Potter, Mrs. Charles S. Kinnison, Peter Herbert H. Gaudner, Mrs. Peter K. Bothe, Mrs. Charles W. Cranford, Mrs. Calvin P. Vary, Mrs. H. S. Burlingame and Mrs. Harry Starr. Mrs. W. D. Thompson is chairman of the committee on patronesses. Further plans for the play will be discussed at a meeting of the committee to be held Monday at the House at 10:30 a. m.

In addition to celebrating the last lap on the road to clear the Community House of debt, the marionettes will be significant of another event, the 100th anniversary of Mark Twain's birth. The famous humorist was born in 1835, and Sarg's presentation of the well known "Yankee" will be part of a centennial demonstration which is being generally observed as a tribute to the author.

Following the annual marionettes have for children, the committee is planning to have the performance, which will be held on Friday, at an hour early enough to enable parents to bring the young members of the committee.

Conveniently arranged for those planning to attend the performance, the committee has arranged for a special dinner for the young members of the committee.

The Burnt-Mortgage committee, under the chairmanship of Charles J. Shain, has outlined an 18-months campaign through which it plans to pay off the final

FRANKLIN HUNT TO PURSUE 'BANDITS'

Clues Will Give Riders Trail To Make-Believe Robbers' Roost

Mrs. Hendrie

Make-believe bandits will take to their fictitious heels Saturday afternoon when members of the Franklin Hunt take to horse in pursuit. For the sake of variety, and having had one treasure hunt this season, members of the Hunt have decided to make-believe bandits, and so after the manner of the "Mounties" they will ride to get their "man". The chase will begin at the stroke of 2 p. m.

To aid in this synthetic man-hunt, clues will be laid out to aid the riders in tracking down their prey. After all clues have been exhausted, the posse will gallop over to Donald S. Bell's lodge on the Twelve Mile road for a little encouragement in the form of a steak roast and outdoor supper.

Among those planning to take part in the "hunt" will be Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yager, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. local, Dr. and Mrs. Lynn N. Hershey, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Bullock, Richard, Mrs. Alice Harlow, Mr. and Mrs. Newton F. Hadley, Hiram Perry Holmes, William C. Byers, Capt. Fred McGuffey, J. Walter Wellwood, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Roth Truesdell, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Moore.

Members of the Hunt will have their customary ride to the house on Sunday morning beginning at 5 o'clock. The next event on their social calendar will be a hunt about Thanksgiving time.

Bloomfield Hunt To Hold Opening Meet

Red coats and full hunting regalia will be on display Saturday for the opening meet of the Bloomfield Open Hunt which will be held at 2:30 p. m.

Hunts will continue through the season each Tuesday and Thursday mornings at 6:30 a. m., and on Saturdays at 2:30 p. m. An exception to this schedule will be Saturday, Oct. 26, when a race meeting will be held at the track. On this day the hunt at Bloomfield will be started at 8:30 a. m. instead of at the usual time.

For the opening meet Saturday, Walter O. Briggs, Jr., and Ralph J. Polk, Jr., will be joint masters of the hunt.

Each year the Teachers' Club of Birmingham undertakes the responsibility of furnishing shoes for needy children attending the schools. This year will be no exception in either the practice, or the need. As a result a benefit bridge will be held at the Community House Wednesday evening, the proceeds of which will be used for the children's shoe fund.

Mrs. Ruth Simmons is in charge of the welfare committee of the club.

Parents Should Interest Children In Elections

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Department Parent Education, Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

WE PARENTS want to prove to our children that we feel an obligation for the civic welfare of our community. We wish their right to be still more emphasized by junior and senior high schools over the issues to be voted on. Teachers have an opportunity to lead youth to discuss these matters in an impersonal manner, devoting the arguments to logic rather than to prejudice and passion.

This is a good time, also, to have school children learn about the duties, term of office and salary of each public office to be filled at the coming election.

At home and school we shall try to lead youth to want to vote for good, honest men and women. Better still, we shall want our children to acquire such lives as shall make them worthy to be voted for, so that by and by we might have better candidates from whom to choose on election day.
