Local Woman On Slate Of Michigan League Of Women Voters

Mrs. Angus D. McLay of Winneton drive was elected vice-president of the Michigan League of Women Voters at the Tuesday session of the annual convention held in Detroit Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Paul Jones of Grand Rapids was re-elected president, and Mrs. L. D. Averill, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. McLay is also vice-president of the Birmingham League, in which capacity she is now acting as president of the absence of Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall.

Other members of the Birmingham League who attended various group conferences at the convention, included Mrs. Paul L. Penfield, who was present at the conference on government and its operation; Mrs. Frederick B. Smith, who sat in on the conference on government and education; Mrs. Charles J. Shan, who assisted in conducting the conference on international cooperation to prevent war.

Mrs. John K. Ormond represented Birmingham at the child welfare conference. Mrs. F. F. McKinney attended the conference on government and economic welfare, and Mrs. McLay, the consumers' division of the same group.

Those from Birmingham who were guests at the banquet Monday evening included Mrs. McLay, Mrs. Shan, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. William E. Essery, Mrs. R. L. Beers, and Miss Edith Connelly.
