Hallowe'en Will Be Celebrated By Entire City

Community-Wide Interest Shown In Program For Entertainment Of Birmingham Young People

PRIZES - BARBECUE - MOVIES - DANCE

Ghouls and goblins, freaks and fools will fill the streets of Birmingham tonight as this city's community celebration of Hallowe'en gets off to a flying start with a mammoth parade about the town. More than 1,600 boys and girls and an unestimated number of grownups are expected to turn out for the gala evening. Originating with S. O. Wylle bell's offer of a fathelier for barbecuing, "to the start of the city streets, will be should be should
