

MASQUERADES BIG SUCCESS

Barnum Program Features
Clair Rose Keen, 8-Year-Old Star

By ROSE BERLIN
The Annual Masquerades of Barnum and Adams Junior high schools were both voted a big success by the students and faculty of the schools.

Mr. Coombs, principal of Adams, said he thought this year's masquerade was one of the most pleasant he had ever attended. There were nine prizes given at the Adams Masquerade, and they went to the following people:

Best boy's costume, Jack Hamner; best girl's costume, Jane Ellen Ford; funniest boy, Sheldon Olsen; funniest girl, Ruth Savage; best book character, Susan Averill; best folk costume, Jane Herrick; door prize, Tom Allen; best couple, Elizabeth Lyon and Wallace Meloy; dancing contest, Dorothy Bender and Gordon O'Kelly.

The program at Adams consisted of a diat by Margaret Smith and Irene Williams and songs by Robert Byrd and Charles Savage. At Barnum, the prize winners were as follows: Funniest and Wendell Matternsage (Every-one believed that Wendell was a girl until he was forced to unmask.); most original couple, Phyllis Walls and Fred Walls; most original boy, Daniel Swartz; most original girl, Frances Rubeck; funniest boy, Glenn Wicks; funniest couple, James and Robert Church.

Harold Jones, winner of the recent Barnum Amateur contest, was first on the Barnum program. He put on the same act he did at the contest, and was loudly applauded. There were songs by Billy Morrison and Lucille Moorehouse. Then came the surprise.

Bill Baldwin, master of ceremonies, announced a young lady by the name of Clair Rose Keen. Clair sings over the radio, and she reached the mature age of eight years. She was accompanied by her mother at the piano. After Clair had sung one song, the students refused to let her go, and she sang two more numbers, one entitled "I'll Never Say Again" and "Oh, You Men."

The program closed with a dance by Ruth Heydon and Jean Huffman. They were accompanied at the piano by Mr. Hallcock, one of the Barnum teachers.

Detective Movie
On Thursday, October 24, the students of Adams Junior high school were entertained during their assembly by a detective movie on "Methods of Identification of Criminals."

The movie was presented through the courtesy of the Birmingham Police Department.

Now that the Field-hall season is over, the girls of Barnum and Adams are taking up the game of Bit (B) Baseball.

Inter-class games have already started at both schools, and the most recent scores follow:
BARNUM
A-A vs. S-B: Score 18-17, favor of the A's.
S-B vs. S-A: Score 27-7, favor of the S-A's.

Barnum inter-class games will be played today.

BARNUM WINS TWO GAMES

The Barnum light-weight girls engaged the Adams light-weights in a special game on Wednesday, October 23. Barnum won the game by a score of 9-1. The lineup was:

Barnum	Adams
Leach	Platto
Leach	Leach
Wagner	Pardee
Mitbell	Rutan
GG	McCullough
Schwartz	Hammes
Wardlaw	Kendall
Wardlaw	Stoegner
Boomer	Thomas
Day	Stoegner
Pardee	Fisher

Substitutes: Adams: Littington, Paulay, O'Connor, Armstrong.

Adams: Bourne, Harvey.

The second game of the afternoon was played between the heavy-weight teams of the two schools.

Barnum took the second game, too, by a score of 11-1.

The line-ups were:

Barnum	Adams
Ronshinger	Richardson
Brown	Slater
Upward	Pardee
Mitchell	Bickford
GG	Quail
Hart	Hendricks
Estes	Thomas
Palmer	Binn
Palmer	Hammes
Stearns	Wagner
Reid	Miller

Substitutes: Adams: Owen, Pettigrew.

Adams: McCullough, Stitt, Bennett.

BALDWIN JUNIORS HOLD MASQUERADE

The Junior high masquerade given last Friday by the Baldwin student council was one of the best ever held. The surprise of the evening was the refreshments, consisting of ice-cream and cookies.

The Junior high section room was decorated in the form of a dancing party. All the committees were dressed as "gals."

Six adult couples were invited as chaperones for the masquerade.

A Dutch astronomer has discovered an unnamed far-off star which carries 180,000 degrees Fahrenheit. That is about as hot as a modern jazz orchestra.

The program closed with a dance by Ruth Heydon and Jean Huffman. They were accompanied at the piano by Mr. Hallcock, one of the Barnum teachers.

CLOSE CONTEST LOST BY POINT

Chatham Defeats Cranbrook
Saturday 1 To 0; High
Type Of Soccer

Is a very closely contested game the Chatham Collegiate soccer team defeated the Cranbrook School team 1 to 0 at Cranbrook last Saturday. Brown, outside left for Chatham, was the only man to score, his tally coming with but one minute to play in the third quarter. Cranbrook threatened to score several times as Avery, outside left, and Craig, inside right, time and again worked the ball deep into Chatham territory.

However, an alert Chatham defense thwarted them every time, and a fine Chatham team went home the victor.
The game was the finest ever seen at Cranbrook and the team functioned very smoothly. The game was nip and tuck all the way and was not decided until the final whistle.
Next week the Cranbrook Soccer team goes to Hudson, Ohio, where they play the Western Reserve School.

The first quarter opened with Chatham kicking off, but aided by a brisk breeze the Cranbrook team kept the ball almost continually out of their half of the field. Cranbrook missed several good chances to score, especially on numerous corner kicks.

The second quarter was similar to the first, with the wind this time helping Chatham to keep the ball on Cranbrook's side of the line. In this period Goalie Hoffman of Cranbrook made several very pretty saves. The half ended with neither team having scored.

In the third quarter the Chatham line seemed to have new lease on life and kept working the ball deeper and deeper toward the Cranbrook goal. About ten minutes of play a penalty shot was called upon Turner, the Cranbrook center half, when he hit the ball with his arm. Daigneau, the Canadian center, made a beautiful shot, but Moore, one of his teammates, was over the line before he kicked the ball and the shot did not count. However, four minutes later when Turner failed to kick out to Brown, got the ball and sent a roller, Hoffman got to the corner of the goal, Hoffman got to the ball but did not handle it as it had a strong spin.

In the fourth and final quarter both teams took largely to the defensive. Cranbrook was on the verge of scoring several times, but the Cranbrook forwards could not get the ball past goalie Rawlings.

The starting line-up:

Cranbrook
Hoffman G. Rawlings
Watkins E.P. Taylor
White L.E. Steinbuhl
Barlan R.H. Armstrong
C.H. Melton
Himeloch L.H. McKerrall
Valpey O.R. Joyce
Craig I.R. Bennett
Tilley C. Daigneau
Johnson L.L. Moore
Avery O.L. Brown

Substitutes—Chatham: Blonde, Parrish, Smyth, Pepper. Cranbrook: Jones, Wade.
