A. A. U. W. TO HOLD INITIAL MEETING

Mrs. Farrar To Open Year With Talk On National Convention

The Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women will begin its work for the year with an organization meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Dye of Lake Park drive at 2 P. M. Greeting old and new members as chairman of the courtesy committee, will be Mrs. Clarence G. Heinmiller. Mrs.
H. G. Wood will have charge of the tea and social hour to follow the meeting.

Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, new president of the Birmingham Branch, will speak as the delegate from Birmingham to the national convention held in Los Angeles, Cal., in May. Mrs. Farrar will review the convention proceedings and activities.

The remainder of the afternoon will be devoted to a discussion of the various interests of members, to determine what type of work is favored by groups and individuals within the organization.

The initial meeting of the committee on International Relations will be held Tuesday, Oct. 1, at the Community House at 10 A. M.
C. Douglas Booth, author and lecturer of the Carnegie Educational of New York City, will address the group. Mr. Booth's subject will be "Economic Nationalism in an Interdependent World."

Mrs. Forbes S. Haswell, chairman of the book sale to be held Oct. 21 to the 26th, will meet members of her committee today at 2 P. M. to discuss plans for the sale.

CRANBROOK GRADS HOLD ALUMNI DAY

Exhibition By Detroit Lions Football Team Features Fifth Annual Reunion

Cranbrook School former students, graduates since 1931 when the school first had commencement exercises, held their fifth annual alumni day program Tuesday afternoon at Cranbrook.

Mark A. Delaire, III, class of 1935, was in charge of the program which included tennis and ping-pong exhibitions, a softball game and an exhibition football game by the Detroit Lions who are training for the coming season at Cranbrook.

The evening program included a dinner, songs, short talks by members of the faculty and alumni, and moving pictures taken at Cranbrook school last spring.

Club Notes

day at the home of Mrs. J. B.
Dailey of East Long Lake road.
Assisting the hostess will be Mrs.
Edward H. Laird, Mrs. Harry Bissett and Mrs. Charles E. James.

A tourist who smokes is safe from New Hebrides cannibals, it is claimed, since they dislike a nicotine flavor. This, however, doesn't apply to actors, the natives being partial to smoked ham.
