UNION WILL HOLD BIRTHDAY PARTY

Presbyterian Church Group To Open Season With Unique Anniversary Luncheon

The first annual birthday luncheon to be given by the Women's Union of the First Presbyterian church will be held at the church Wednesday at 1 P. M. The luncheon will officially begin the season for the Union, and will be followed by a short business meeting.

Leaders of the five divisions will be in charge of five of the six tables. Mrs. John K. Ormond, as president, will be in charge of the sixth table representing the executive board. Each table will be decorated to symbolize two months of the year, and guests will take their places at the table of the month representing their various birthdays.

The luncheon will be served by members of the Women's Society of the M. E. church. Proceeds of the affair will be used to furnish flowers for the Presbyterian church and for those of the congregation who are ill.

The committee in charge includes besides Mrs. Ormond, Mrs. R. P. Cole, Mrs. J. E. Stroup, Mrs. A. C. Berges, Mrs. Robert Allen, and Mrs. George E. A. Hallett.

Mrs. John W. Gillette, Jr., and her sons, Lou and John, III, left Monday to Nantux to Connecticut, where her sons will enter the Midwestern School.

To Speak On Trees

Mr. Davey

A journey around the world in search of strange trees led Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Davey of Kent, O., into many out-of-the-way places far from the beaten paths of travel. Mr. Davey, who made his pilgrimage with a camera, will tell of his experiences and show stereoscopic views of the unusual trees discovered in a pictorial dialogue to be given under auspices of the Bloomfield Hills Unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association in the Guild Hall at Christ Church Cranbrook, Tuesday, Oct. 1 at 8:30 P. M.

In the course of their travels, Mr. and Mrs. Davey journeyed more than 50,000 miles, to islands in the South Seas, through Australia, Tasmania, the entire length of the African continent, and many other countries.

Miss Cora Myers of Bloomfield Hills is chairman of the ticket sale. Reservations may be made by telephoning her at 53. The meeting will be open to the public.

Luncheon Planned For Michigan Group

The first meeting of the Birmingham Branch of the Michigan League will be held at the summer home of Mrs. H. H. Corson at Watkins Lake near Drayton Plains, Wednesday, beginning with luncheon at 1 P. M. New members wishing to attend are asked to make reservations with Mrs. Corson.

New officers of the League for this year are Mrs. Robert P. Watt, president; Mrs. Lewis B. Sarnting, vice-president; Mrs. Hollis P. Halliday, secretary, and Mrs. Rolfe C. Spinning, treasurer.

Cops Title

After scoring the greatest upset in American tennis in years, by defeating England's Fred Perry, kingpin of the net world, Wilmer Allison, above, hard-smacking Texan, went right ahead and captured the national singles title by riding roughshod over Sydney R. Wood, of New York, Allison, 31, took a licking from the sparkling Briton a year ago.

NEW RESIDENCE

The above English type home situated on Fairmont Drive, Beverly Hills, was sold by Snyder, Buck and Bennett to J. M. Keer, who, with his family, has moved here from Jackson.
