NAME IS CHANGED BY MUSIC GROUP

"Thursday" To Be Dropped From Title Of Musicals In Future

When the club season opens in October, an organization long familiar to Birmingham as the "Thursday Musicals" will begin the year under a new name. It will be known in the future as the "Birmingham Musicals."

The new name was selected, according to Mrs. L. H. Thomas of Westwood drive, who will begin her duties as president in October, to allow the club greater leeway in the choice of days and dates for meetings and other club affairs throughout the year.

With the name specified as the "Thursday Musicals," the organization was limited to the one day. With the new name, programs may be arranged on days suitable to avoid conflicts, on any day of the week that is open.

Serving as officers with Mrs. Thomas this year will be Mrs. F. J. Mullinger, vice-president; Mrs. H. Victor Spike, recording secretary; Mrs. William A. Shaver, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Peter K. Boyne, treasurer.

The program for the year is under consideration by a committee of which Mrs. Margaret Neff Glenn is chairman. Mrs. Earl G. Potter will head the membership committee. Chairman of the chorus will be Mrs. William C. Byers. Mrs. M. E. Mead is chairman of the budget committee. Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner will head the social committee, and Mrs. Clarence Botsford, the publicity.

Birmingham Women Plan To Attend Lecture Course

Many Birmingham women are planning to attend the lecture course offered this season by the Friday Morning Town Hall series, which will open the new season under the management of Mrs. Nellie Peck Saunders at the Cass Theater.

Among the distinguished speakers and entertainers who will be presented during the series will be Cornelia Otis Skinner, who will open the season with a presentation of "Mansion on the Hudson"; Norman Angell, author and winner of the Nobel Peace prize for 1934; Romola Nijinski, Hungarian author; Edward Weeks, magazine editor; Theodore Dreiser, noted American author; Emil Ludwig, biographer; Dr. Alfred Adler of Vienna, and John Mason Brown,

An Announcement of Special Interest to You...

A NEW DRY CLEANING SERVICE

"THE PROSPERIZE METHOD"

WE HAVE INSTALLED A COMPLETE DRY CLEANING PLANT... RIGHT HERE IN BIRMINGHAM. IT IS THE MOST MODERN AND EFFICIENT THAT MONEY CAN BUY. IT IS LARGE ENOUGH TO HANDLE ALL SEASONAL RUSHES WITHOUT ANNOYING DELAYS, YET SMALL ENOUGH SO THAT YOUR CLEANING WILL RECEIVE INDIVIDUAL ATTENTION.

To Our Patrons and Friends:

In an effort to provide a finer type of Dry Cleaning Service to the people of this community, we have installed what we believe to be the finest cleaning plant available today. It will enable us to render a better service, in that we will personally handle your cleaning work from the time it reaches our hands until it is returned to you. We wish to thank you for your patronage and good will which has made this expansion program feasible and possible. We invite you to call and see our new plant and permit us to show you just how your work will be handled.

M. RAY COOK, President.
