BENEFIT TO BRING MOVIES TO SCHOOL

Pierce P. T. A. Sponsors Party To Purchase Projector

Children of the Pierce School will be the proud possessors of a motion picture projector if the card party to be held at the school Thursday, April 23, at 8 p. m. proves a success.

The Pierce School Parent Teachers Association, sponsoring the party, has pledged proceeds toward the fund to purchase the projector. It is hoped by the P. T. A. committee to raise an amount sufficient to clear the cost of the machine, so that free performances may be given for the children to enjoy without having to pay admission to defray expenses.

To show their whole-hearted cooperation in the affair, children of the 6th grade are selling tickets. Others assisting with arrangements are Mrs. Wilfred Turner, president of the P. T. A., and Mr. Fred Samuelsen, who are in charge of prizes; Mrs. Harry Clark and Mrs. Donald Hinckley, in charge of refreshments; Mrs. Allen McCrae, Horace Barrett and H. Earl Corvance, principal, who will be in charge of the card room.

Soroptimist Club Gives Party For 150 Guests

Mrs. Laura Connelly of Devon Gables was hostess to 150 guests Tuesday evening at a luncheon and dancing party sponsored by the Birmingham Soroptimist Club. Mrs. Ruth Collins was in charge of arrangements for the affair. Among the guests were 15 members of the Detroit chapter.

The next meeting of the club will be held Thursday, April 23, at Devon Gables, and will be a business meeting.

Orchard Lake Plans Informal Dance As Pre-Opener

Orchard Lake Country Club will inaugurate its summer social season, Saturday, April 25, with an informal "Pre-Opening" dance at the club. Sheldon R. Noble is in charge of arrangements for the affair. Dancing will begin at 9 p. m., and continue until 1 a. m., with refreshments at midnight.

Pieti Hill Chapter Hears Review Of Year's Program

Members of Pieti Hill Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, turned back the pages of their chapter's brief history, Tuesday afternoon, while Mrs. William L. Graham, regent, read a resume of activities embraced in the first year of its existence. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Marvin G. Kim of Kennesaw road.

Our chapter took its name right out of local history," Mrs. Graham declared in her resume, "as our little town was called Pieti Hill previous to 1835."

Since the date of organization Feb. 16, 1935, when it numbered 12 members, the chapter has successfully sponsored a number of projects, Mrs. Graham pointed out. Among these she enumerated a bridge tea, held two months after the founding of the chapter, for the benefit of the Crossure School in the South; a birthday tea on Feb. 11 of this year, and a Colonial bridge tea on Feb. 18 of this year, also for the benefit of the southern school.

Gifts presented to the chapter during the year, Mrs. Graham told the members, included a gavel and book carved from historic timber, and a silk flag presented by Mrs. Beatley Green of Bloomfield Hills, associate member. During the year programs have been devoted to discussion of Ellis Island, approved schools, national defense, "Sons and Daughters of U. S. A.," the history of Michigan, and the work of the American Legion hospital at Battle Creek.

As evidence of the chapter's growth, Mrs. Graham pointed out that a year ago, the 12 members made $10 as the proceeds of the first benefit bridge, and that the 25 members bridged this year made a profit of $100, from the second bridge benefit sponsored for the Crossure School.

Future plans of the chapter mentioned by Mrs. Graham included the establishment of a scholarship fund, and the organization of "Sons and Daughters of the U. S. A. clubs."

The program also included an informal address by Mrs. George W. Moran, state chairman for the D. A. R. national magazine, "The Value of the D. A. R. Magazine," Mrs. William H. DeGraff reviewed events of the recent state conference held in Detroit. Plans for the annual luncheon of the chapter to be held in May were discussed at a tea held Monday at Devon Gables by the social committee of which Mrs. Irwin R. Biggett is chairman. Guests at the tea were Mrs. W. A. Shaver, Mrs. S. W. Beahm, Mrs. George D. Miller, Mrs. Glenn Coley, Mrs. E. W. Brehm, Mrs. W. O. Jeffries, and Mrs. Clark C. Coulter.

In Planning Menus Consider The Fish

The careful housewife will find it well worth while to consider the possibilities of fish. First because it is a valuable article of diet as it contains iodine, a substance necessary for health. Next it is modern, easy to prepare and economical. As fish needs just the right recipe, special attention should be paid to the proper accompaniments.

- 1 large can salmon.
 - 3 eggs.
 - 3 tablespoons cream.
 - Juice of 1-2 lemons.
 - Salt and pepper to taste.
 - Mash the salmon, add the cream, seasonings, lemon juice and beaten yolks. Mix, add beaten whites. Bake in greased cups, set in hot water for 20 minutes.
 - 2 cups green lima beans.
 - 1 cup creamed potatoes with pimento garnish and a salad made of grated raw carrots and shredded cabbage.
- Shrimp Cocktail
 - 1 1/2 cups shrimp, flaked.
 - 3/4 cup chili sauce.
 - Small can caviar.
 - 1 cup thin mayonnaise.
 - 1 1/2 tablespoons chopped ripe olives.
 - Mix the chili sauce, mayonnaise and olives. Put the shrimp flakes into cocktail glasses and pour the sauce over. Top with 1/2 teaspoon caviar.
- Sardine Appetizers
 - 3/4 cup mayonnaise.
 - 1 cup sardines.
 - 1 teaspoon lemon juice.
 - 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.
 - 1 teaspoon horse-radish.
 - Salt to taste.
 - Dash pepper and cayenne.
 - Stuffed olives, sliced in half.
 - Mash the sardines with a fork, add the mayonnaise and seasonings. Blend thoroughly. Spread the mixture on thin toast rounds and place one slice of stuffed olive in the center of each round. This amount makes about 16 appetizers.

- Turkish Pilau
- 2-3 cup rice.
- 1-4 cup butter.
- 1 can tomato soup.
- 1 cup whole cooked shrimp.
- 1 cup chili sauce.
- 1-4 cup mayonnaise.
- Cook the rice in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and rinse with boiling water. Melt the butter in a frying pan. Cook the rice in the butter for 3 minutes. Add the tomato soup, shrimp and cayenne, and cook for 5 minutes. Fold in the mayonnaise just before serving.

- Sole Florentine
- 6 filets, flounder.
- 1 tablespoon fat.
- 1 cup milk.
- Bread crumbs.
- 1-4 teaspoon salt.
- Four grams pepper.
- 1-2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- Chopped, cooked spinach.
- Heat fat, add onion and mix well. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly until smooth. Cook 8 minutes. Add cheese, salt and pepper. Stir until cheese is melted. Put the filets in salted hot water to cover and simmer until done. Put a layer of spinach on each fish and the other two slices of salt pork. Then a thin slice of salt pork. Put in baking pan with a little water and bake for 25 minutes. Put mixture on top of each piece of fish, then a thin slice of salt pork. Bake 50 minutes in an oven 400 degrees, basting occasionally with the water in the pan. Serve with tartar sauce, parsley, potatoes, grilled tomatoes, hard-boiled eggs, a salad made of shredded cabbage with green peas.

- Tartar Sauce
- 1 cup mayonnaise.
- 1 tablespoon chopped capers.
- 1 tablespoon sour cucumber pickle, chopped.
- 1 tablespoon olives, chopped.
- 1-2 teaspoon parsley, chopped (may be omitted).
- 1-2 teaspoon onion, scraped.
- Place the mayonnaise in a bowl and fold the other ingredients into it. Chill. Serve in lettuce cups.

LOCAL ANTIQUES IN ROYAL OAK EXHIBIT

Rare Treasures Of Past In Show Sponsored By Women's Club

Those possessing antiques of interest in Birmingham and the Hills are responding with enthusiasm to the invitation of the Royal Oak Women's Club to exhibit their treasures in a loan exhibition of antiques, sponsored by the club, and which will be held in the clubhouse in Royal Oak Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 21 to 23.

Among collectors entering from Birmingham will be Mrs. George T. Hendrie who will exhibit a Sheffield coffee urn, two old English fire-side seats, Scotch grates showing the plaids of different clans, an old English dessert set, and other interesting articles.

Dr. and Mrs. Lynn St. Hershey of Franklin road will lend their interesting old pine cupboard, and rare collection of finger bowls to the exhibit. Mrs. Joseph F. Page of Lone Pine road has submitted among other antiques, a fine collection of Lowestoft china, and a wine set, which belonged originally to her great grandfather, Capt. Robert Hardie, who owned a number of clipper ships sailing out of Philadelphia, prior to the American Revolution. There is also on the log of one of the ships dating back to the early eighteenth century.

Mrs. H. G. Jackson of Park Valley road will exhibit a rare collection of pink lustre china, brought from Orval, Va., to Lakport, N. Y., in 1829, and three Belter chairs, bearing the original Belter mark. Bruce A. Swaney of Ravine road will contribute his collection of Sandwich and early American glass, and an early American ladder-back rocker.

Mrs. Louis E. Bead of Royal Oak is general chairman of the exhibition, and assisting her are Mrs. Roland P. Pearson, president of the Royal Oak Women's Club and Mrs. Harry L. White, a member of Royal Oak. On the advisory committee for Birmingham are: Mrs. Helen Fitzmaurice, Wendell of North Woodward avenue, and Mrs. Maud Allen of Keegan, Harbor.

Vows To Be Spoken At Church Nuptials

At a ceremony in Bodenswiler Lutheran church, Wednesday, April 23, at 7 o'clock, Miss Anna Eger of 7275 Oak, Mrs. Anna Eger of 7275 Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eager of Adams road will be sponsors of the nuptial ceremony of Miss Helen Eager and Mr. Raymond Evans of Oxford, Mich. The Rev. Theodore G. Waggner, Jr., will perform the nuptial rites.

Miss Helen Eager will attend her sister as honor maid, and another sister, Mrs. Martha Eager will be bridesmaid. Clara Bowen, niece of the bride, will be the flower girl.

George Bunker of Berkeley will perform the rites of best man, and Vernon Evans will attend by best man.

A reception for members of the family will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

The young couple will reside in Detroit.
