Engagement Made Known At Tea In Bloomfield Hills

Mary Jane Brown

Mrs. Guy Carlton Brown of Nicolet road was hostess at a tea Saturday afternoon, given to announce the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Jane Brown, and William Ingersoll Rose, son of Mr. Howard C. Rose of Woodland avenue.

Miss Brown, who attended Kingwood School Cranbrook, is completing her schooling at Chevy Chase, from which she will graduate in June. Mr. Rose attended Dartmouth College, the University of Paris, and is now a student at the University of Michigan. The marriage will be solemnized in the late autumn.

Attending the tea were, Miss Dorothy Parks of Riverdale, N. J., a house guest of Miss Brown for the week-end; the Misses Nancy and Helen Smith, Mary Louise and Virginia Hills, Barbara Jackson, Betty Kingdon-Smith, Louise Wilson, Katherine Watkins, Sylvia Callender, Marguerita Ward,

A. A. U. W. TO HEAR ADDRESS ON JAPAN

Prof. Hall Of Ann Arbor To Speak On Evening Program

Prof. Robert D. Hall, Dean of the Department of Geography of the University of Michigan, will speak on the "Physical and Cultural Foundations of Japan," Wednesday, at 8 p. m., at the Community House, before members of the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women, their husbands and guests.

Preceding the program, there will be a dinner at the House at 6:30, when Prof. Hall will be the honor guest. Mrs. Charles D. Hawley is in charge of dinner reservations, assisted by Mrs. A. D. Melay.

During the past seven years, Prof. Hall has made four journeys to Japan and Manchukuo. With the aid of original maps of these countries, he will make his subject more graphic.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Yule of Cranbrook are spending their spring holiday at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Among University of Michigan students home over the week-end were Miss Julie Kane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Kane of Lake Park, Irree, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Staley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen C. Staley of Abbey road.

Mrs. W. W. Talman of Puritan road has returned from Pinhurst, N. C., where, for the past three weeks, she has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. James Barber.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyce E. Ricketts of Cranbrook are in New York City for a sojourn during the spring holiday.

Miss Doris Perkins will arrive the latter part of the week from Sweet Briar College to spend her spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Perkins of Lone Pine road.

H. D. Harris of Glengary road and Royce L. Beers of Arlington road left Saturday for a week's visit at Southern Pines, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Mock of Pilegrim road are in Lakealand, Fla., where they will spend about 10 days before returning to Birmingham.

Women Voters Will Elect New Officers

Members of the Birmingham League of Women Voters will gather for a luncheon, annual election, and program, Monday at the Community House.

Considerable interest centers about the election of officers. Mrs. Forbes S. Hascell resigned recently as president, since her resignation, Mrs. Angus D. Melay, vice-president, has acted in the capacity of executive for the League.

Following the business meeting, a political playlet, "Daze Without End," will be dramatized by Mrs. Hascell will be presented under her direction. In the cast will be Mrs. Ralph Bricker, who plays the lead; Mrs. William H. Jackson, Mrs. Paul L. Penfield, Mrs. F. F. McKinney, and Mrs. James J. Relly, Jr.

Mrs. W. D. Weitzel is in charge of reservations for the luncheon.

Home Nursing Class Is Well Attended

The class in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, sponsored by the Oakland County Chapter of the Red Cross, opened Wednesday at the Community House with an attendance of 20 women.

The class will be conducted each Wednesday morning at the House at 9:30 a. m. by Ann Hecox, R. N., instructor from national headquarters. Mrs. Hecox will give demonstrations in caring for the sick at home.

Mrs. Donald McGraw is chairman of the committee in charge, and assisting her will be Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Mrs. Jack C. Boomer, Jr., and Mrs. Kate Dumm.
