DEAN LOYD TALKS AT MEN'S CLUB DINNER

The Men's Club of the First Presbyterian Church is holding its Annual Ladies' Night Dinner Thursday, April 2. Alice C. Lloyd, Dean of Women at the University of Michigan, will be the speaker and she has chosen for her subject "The Social Problems Which Youth Faces Today."

Michigan alumni who would like to hear Dean Lloyd on any topic else who is interested in her work, are cordially invited to attend the dinner and lecture. Tickets for the dinner are nominally priced. Dinner will be served at 6:45 o'clock followed by Dean Lloyd's address.

ST. JAMES CHOIR TO SING SPECIAL CANTATA

On the evening of Good Friday, April 10th, St. James' Episcopal Church of twenty voices, with assisting soloists will present a special cantata, "The Darkest Hour," by Harold Moore. The event will be of special interest because it is the first presentation of the work in Birmingham.

The choir is under the direction of Waflo F. Fellows. Soloists will be Mrs. Frank Campbell, soprano, Charles Hutton, baritone, Lawrence P. Smith and Mr. Fellows, tenors. Mrs. S. M. Dudley will be the organist.

The program will begin at 8 P. M. Admission is free, although a silver offering will be taken to defray expenses.

We Heard It Said By—Frank I. Mulholland, local merchant, who along with his father-in-law, Frank Wright, his brother, W. Ham, of Wayne, and Phil J. Williams, shoe dealer here, witnessed the Boyne city festival last Sunday night.

It was one of the funniest things I have seen in years—hundreds of men in boots and waders standing on the edge of the Boyne River just midnight, waiting to rush in, with dip nets, and other things that were run up the river to spawn. Men floundered in the river, some of them frantically slipping, some of them playfully showing their friends under the surface of the cold water. Aside from the gang spirit, there really isn't much sport to the smelt business, though.

Auntie—Precious, what did you do in school today?
Precious—Well, had nature study class and had to write a paper on home.

Maury—And what did you talk about?
Precious—I took a bath in a tub.

Mrs. Gash—That dress is the most perfect fit I have ever seen.
Mrs. Chang—Then you should have seen the one my husband had when he got the bill for it.

First Home In Couzens' Development Occupied

The first house in Senator Couzens' Green Lake lowest-cost housing development was occupied this week. Within thirty to sixty days all of the 150 homes included in this project will be ready for occupancy.

The land on which these houses are being built was acquired last June when Senator Couzens donated $55,000 to the Federal Government to supplement the Government's $100,000 appropriation for a workmen's project in Oakland County.

Senator Couzens' donation was accepted by Harry L. Hopkins, FERA Administrator, with an agreement that the Government would spend the first $300,000 and then draw upon the Couzens' grant for the remaining cost.

The plans for the 150 houses were drawn up by Barton P. Jenks, Jr., FERA supervising architect, and his staff. Each house is about an acre of ground, or a "back yard," an acre which may be cultivated by factory workers during their spare time and during seasonal unemployment. Each house faces on a street, and is designed to accommodate a family of six, construction being planned to permit facility of later expansion.

The houses are arranged in detached garages, are of different design, but average about 20x22 ft. Typical is one having a living room (11x20, 6 ft. 6 in.), kitchen, dining alcove, garage and terrace on the ground floor. The second floor has a bathroom and bedroom on the second floor.

There are no basements. Utility rooms contain laundry equipment, storage accommodations and forced circulation hot air heating system. All of the garages have work benches. Bedrooms are large enough to accommodate two single beds; closets are large; and the Fenestra Casements are much larger than windows ordinarily used in houses of such dimensions.

All of the houses are finished, the interior walls are plastered. First floor exteriors are a kind of block; the second floor, with eaves and shingles; roofs asphalt slate.

In every respect, these homes show that careful thought was given to construction details that would not only be economical in first cost but would insure a minimum of trouble and upkeep for many years to come. This is particularly evident in the window installations, which include an interesting combination of aluminum and Steel Casings, in the 150 houses. With the use of steel casings, the trim and cornice of cutting interior trim was eliminated.

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

Jane Fowler, Birmingham, has been awarded Michigan State College numerals for athletic proficiency by the Women's Athletic Association at East Lansing. Miss Fowler, a junior in home economics, is a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

The Clawson High Band is preparing for the concert given by service in which the churches of Clawson will unite. The service will be held in the high school Assembly hall Palm Sunday evening.

Wayne White, sophomore at the University of Michigan, was initiated recently by Alpha Phi Fraternity.

Helen Straud, of Birmingham, was among the senior women who were entered by by Kappa Delta sorority at the University of Michigan, Sunday, March 29.

One hundred graduates of the play, "Pleasant Stand By," given by the Barnum Play-Teacher assembly, Friday night in the school. The program was marked only by one change from the schedule. The play was given by the whistling in place of Floyd A. Franklin, who was to sing.

Beautifying The Home Grounds

The attainment and enjoyment of beautiful home grounds are among the greatest privileges associated with home life. A beautiful home environment is one of the greatest existing sources of inspiration for the fiber and better emotions. Beautiful trees, shrubs, lawns, and flowers surrounding one's abode are a perpetual source of human satisfaction.

With all the wonderful developments of the modern city, man has not neglected an adequate substitute for the enjoyment of the elements that constitute a beautiful landscape.

Planning and developing beautiful grounds about the home is not especially difficult. No elaborate effects are needed, nor are they expensive. A simple, unobtrusive development to produce a pleasing setting for the house and to harmonize the rural home grounds with the larger landscape of the environment should be the controlling aim.

It is explained that this is an economy experiment—an attempt to do something on a sound economic basis, and that there are no social implications involved. It is not the purpose of the project to fit the residents of this community into a planned pattern, it is hoped to give a committed, center and other structures required for the needs and interests of the community but these will be built only as the residents decide upon them.
