ROLLS REVEAL BRETROTHAL NEWS

Daughter's Engagement Is Made Known By Hosts At Dinner

Diminutive scrolls informed guests at a dinner given Saturday night at Devon Gables by Mrs. Earle H. Cunningham of 103 1/2 street, of the engagement of their daughter, Yvonne, and Al Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Greene of East Lincoln. The small scrolls were very tied with pink and blue ribbon to the handles of the gift baskets marking places for the pink and blue sweet peas centered the dinner table, and were combined in corsage bouquets, tied with pink and blue ribbons, for the feminine guests. Carrying out the same dainty color-scheme, were the dinner gowns of Mrs. Cunningham and her daughter, Mrs. Cunningham wore a jacket frock of blue lace, and Yvonne was similarly gowned in a dinner costume of pink lace.

In addition to the young honor guests, those attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hunt of Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Brook Barr of Pontiac, Miss Nora Jones, Miss Dorothy Pauli, Dean Smith and Gordon Greene, Jr.

Bridge followed the dinner. Both Miss Cunningham and Mr. Greene were graduated from Baldwin High School, and the latter attended the University of Detroit. No date has been announced for the wedding.
