A. A. U. W. NAMES 3 NEW OFFICERS

Mrs. Robinson Elected To Succeed Mrs. Lewis As Vice-President

Mrs. Loren T. Robinson was elected vice-president of the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women, Tuesday morning at a meeting of the executive board, held at the Community House.

Mrs. Robinson will succeed Mrs. Charles E. Lewis, whose term of office has expired. Other officers elected were: Mrs. W. T. Cushing, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William Schultz, Jr., treasurer, and two members-at-large, Mrs. H. S. Burlingame and Mrs. Merle P. Bailey.

Those elected a year ago, and who will continue in office are Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, president; Mrs. Thomas H. Adams, recording secretary, and Mrs. W. A. P. John, member-at-large of the board.

The branch will close the year with an annual meeting to be held Wednesday, May 13, at the home of Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington of Arlington drive. Preceding the meeting, a picnic luncheon will be served on the grounds at 12:30. The afternoon will be devoted to a reading of reports and a review of the year's work.

Invitation has been extended to the local group by members of the Dearborn Branch to attend a meeting the same evening at the William Ford School in Dearborn. Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple, secretary of the Wayne County, will speak on "Legislation of Particular Interest to the A. A. U. W."

Club Notes

The Birmingham Business Women's Club will meet for dinner this evening at the Community House.

Recipes For Tasty Asparagus Dishes

Perfectly cooked asparagus, plenty of it—hot, well seasoned and liberally buttered, on toast, a bit softened in the middle by the rich buttery juice and yet crispy at the edges—a dish fit for a king, seemingly there is nothing better. But there are other combinations that are so good, it seems a pity to lose them. Give them a trial.

Baked Asparagus

1½ cups cooked and diced asparagus.
4 tablespoons butter.
6 tablespoons flour.
2 cups milk.
3 eggs.
¼ teaspoon red pepper.
1 teaspoon salt.
2 tablespoons finely chopped pimentos.
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion.
2 tablespoons chopped celery.

Melt the butter and add flour, blend and add the milk. Cook until a thick creamy sauce forms. Add egg yolks and seasonings. Beat 2 minutes. Beat egg whites. Fold in remaining ingredients. Pour into a buttered casserole and bake in a slow oven until puffed in the center.

Asparagus Trifles

Place cooked asparagus tips on rather thick slices of tomatoes. Sprinkle generously with grated cheese and bake in oven 350 degrees. Serve on a platter and garnish with toast points and crisp bacon.

Asparagus Salad

1 package lemon flavored gelatin.
1 cup boiling water.
⅔ cup liquid drained from asparagus.
3 tablespoons vinegar.
½ teaspoon salt.
1 can asparagus or 1 lb. of fresh asparagus, cooked.
Mayonnaise.

Dissolve the gelatine in the boiling water. Add the asparagus liquid, vinegar and salt. Chill until slightly thickened. Place the asparagus tips around the inside of a large mold and fill with the gelatin mixture. Chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with chicory. Serve with mayonnaise thinned with tomato juice.

Creamed Eggs and Asparagus in Croustades

Remove the crusts from a loaf of bread, cut the bread in half lengthwise, place an oval cutter on the half loaf as near the end as possible. With a sharp vegetable knife trim off the corners of the oaf and follow around the cutter. Scoop out the bread from the 4 ovals, leaving an outer edge ½ inch on sides and bottom. Brush thoroughly with butter inside and out. Put into the oven to dry out and toast a golden brown. Brush the edges with melted butter and dip in chopped parsley mixed with mashed cooked egg yolk. Cut fresh asparagus the length of the croustade and cook it upright in a deep saucepan with the water almost to the top of the asparagus. To 1½ cups of white sauce add 4 hard boiled eggs, cut in pieces. Put 3 asparagus stalks on top of each croustade after filling with the creamed eggs. Sprinkle with grated cheese, return to oven until cheese begins to melt.

Sardine and Asparagus

Pat dry on paper towels large sardines which have been drained from oil. Dip in melted butter and arrange on a baking platter. Place pieces of toast on the platter with asparagus tips dipped in butter. Pipe hot mashed potato between the fish and toast. Put the platter beneath broiler flame and brown as quickly as possible. Serve at once. Garnish with fancy cut lemon.

Asparagus and Mushroom Sauce

Toasted buttered biscuits.
Poached eggs.
Asparagus tips buttered.
Bacon curls.
Mushroom sauce.

On a platter arrange the biscuits with the poached eggs. Pour the mushroom sauce around them. Garnish with bundles of the asparagus and bacon curls.

Fried Asparagus

Dip asparagus tips in a thick white sauce, then roll in grated cheese. Set aside to cool. When the sauce has set, dip in slightly beaten eggs and then in bread crumbs. Fry in deep fat.

COUNTY CLUBS TO ELECT OFFICERS

Business Session Will Be Followed By Program Of Music

The Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its annual meeting and election of officers Friday at the Community House. The meeting will open with registration at 9:30, followed by a business session and the reading of reports of club officers and committees.

Following luncheon, the afternoon session will open at 2:30, with a musical program. Mrs. Earl Bartholomew will sing two groups of songs, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Neff Glenn. Mrs. Glenn will play several piano solos between the sing groups. Members of the Oak Park Women's Club will be hostesses for the day.

Representing the Birmingham Woman's Club in the Federation are, Mrs. John S. Black, president; Mrs. John K. Ormond and Mrs. Harry Allen.

Recipe Tea Given To Aid Oratorio Society

Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner of Aspen road opened her home last Thursday for a recipe tea given as a benefit for the Birmingham Oratorio Society. About 100 guests attended to exchange favorite recipes.

Mrs. John K. Ormond, president of the Society, poured tea for the guests. Assisting the hostess were: Mrs. R. D. Lynd, Mrs. L. G. Welch, Mrs. Frank Campbell, Mrs. Edwin Heacock, Mrs. R. D. Hopkins, Mrs. Raymond Peck, Mrs. J. V. Martin, Mrs. Frederick A. Protheroe, Mrs. L. G. Slusser, Mrs. Margaret Lockhart, Mrs. M. A. Tyson and Miss Ethel Porteous.

Students Are Hosts At Benefit Dance

A benefit dance and shower for the Community House will be held Saturday evening under auspices of the Student Committee. Guests to the dance will bring contributions of shoes and clothing for the Thrift Shop.

Features of the party will be a cabaret and floor show, with refreshments served by a committee of which Mrs. Norman Lyle is chairman. Harriet Babcock is in charge of reservations. Barbara Rupp is chairman of the floor-show committee.

Invitation is extended to all members of the high school set.
