WEEK FILLED FOR BUSY BRIDE-ELECT

Mary Jane Brown Is Feted Before Wedding In Hills Church

During the week preceding her wedding on Saturday, Aug. 29, Mary Jane Brown will be one of the most occupied of bride-elects. The pre-nuptial festivities will be in Monday with luncheon at Devon Gables at which Mrs. George H. Whittlesey of Bloomfield Hills will be hostess.

Mrs. Whittlesey has included besides the honor guest, the latter's mother, Mrs. Guy C. Brown, Mrs. Howard C. Ross, Mrs. Aaron Brown, Betty Brown, Marjorie Beaudette, Sylvia Callender, Pauline Voorhis, Nancy Smith, Barbara Fitch, Janet Bragaw, Mrs. Frederic Ward and Mary Louise and Virginia Hills. Bridge will follow the luncheon at Mrs. Whittlesey's home.

Tuesday Mrs. Rose will entertain at a luncheon and hostess shower also at Devon Gables for 16 guests, including members of the family, the wedding party and friends. The luncheon will honor Miss Brown, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Aaron Brown, also a bride of the late summer.

Miss Beaudette will be hostess at dinner Tuesday evening, at her home in Pontiac, and Miss Voorhis will entertain Wednesday afternoon in Detroit. The spinster dinner will be an event of this evening at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, with Betty Brown as hostess. The guests will include Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Aaron Switzer, grandmother of the bride-elect, Miss Callender, Miss Voorhis, Miss Beaudette, Nancy Smith, Mary Adelaide Jones, and Mrs. Aaron Brown. The bachelor dinner will be held this evening also.

Mrs. Brown, mother of the bride-elect will entertain members of the wedding party at the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Miss Brown and William Ingersoll Rose will be married in Christ Church Cranbrook at 8 o'clock in the evening, by the Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, assistant rector.

VOWS SPOKEN AT CHURCH CEREMONY

Bridal Couple Will Spend Wedding Journey At Northern Lodge

Rose colored gladioli banded the altar of St. James' Episcopal church Wednesday evening for the wedding of Charlotte Whalen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Whalen of Greenwood avenue, and Alexander Gow, son of Mr. James T. Gow of Troy, Mich. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Warner L. Forsythe.

Miss Whalen wore a pink silk afternoon dress made with a tunic and trimmed with DuPont. Her hat was a wide-brimmed model of electric blue, and she carried an arm bouquet of African daisies, Johanna Hill roses and lilies.

Mrs. Whalen selected an afternoon frock of figured DuPont for her daughter's wedding. She wore also a large, white hat, and a corsage of Johanna Hill roses, African daisies, and lilies.

Mrs. Gow wore a velvet gown in the mid-blue shade and carried green hat. Her flowers were Johanna Hill roses, African daisies and lilies.

Fall and Campus

Ideal for fall wear, especially in the case of the college girl, is this tweed topcoat worn by Gertrude Michael, film actress. The coat combines green, brown, and gray, and can be worn with many different fall costumes. Miss Michael's hat is a green felt with a deep brim and band of green grosgrain ribbon.
