Mrs. Garber

Editor's Note: This is the fourth of a series of articles by Marjorie Elaine Packer showing the relation of women's organizations to community life in Birmingham, and how these groups influence the city's civic and cultural interests.

Perhaps you wonder when you read that long and impressive name, "The Birmingham unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association," what its importance may be, and what it means to community life here.

The answer is to be found in Birmingham's loveliest parks, in the grounds of the Community House, and in numerous other places, which collectively make Birmingham one of the most beautiful small cities in the state.

Among the many pre-nuptial affairs honoring the bride-elect are the spinster dinner to be given this evening at Bloomfield Hills country club and the rehearsal dinner Friday evening, also at the club, at which Mrs. Brown will be hostess.

On their return from their wedding journey the young couple will make their home in Ann Arbor.

JANE LEE TO WED AT NOON SERVICE

Week Brings Pre-Nuptial Affairs To Close For Bride-Elect

Jane Lee is one of the August brides-elect for whom this week will close pre-nuptial festivities. Miss Lee, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Lee of Lone Pine Court, and Lyle Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Lucas of Hazelwood avenue, will be married at noon Friday in stately Christ Church Cranbrook.

The evening, Elaine Cree of Michigan drive was hostess at a miscellaneous shower, honoring the bride-elect. The other guests were Lillian Vaughan, Sally Baker, Mrs. Robert Clark, Elizabeth Packard and Carol Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas were host at the rehearsal dinner Wednesday evening. The bachelor dinner was an event of Tuesday evening at Devon Hotel.

Miss Lee will be attended by Carol Collins, and the latter's brother, Harry, will be best man for Mr. Lucas, Richard Williams and Frank Smith will serve as ushers.

After the ceremony there will be a small reception for relatives and close friends at the home of the bride's parents.

On their return from a motor trip to Northern Michigan, the young couple will reside in Southfield Manor.

Hills Club To Hold Week-end Dance

One of the highlights of the week-end will be a cabaret-dinner dance Saturday evening at Oak and Hills Country Club.

The club will make an exception to its summer custom of holding dances each Saturday evening on Saturday, Sept. 5. There will be no party, but few activities will be postponed until Labor Day, Sept. 7, when a special program has been arranged for members and guests.

GIRDLES

Artist Model

FOUNDATION with the DETACHABLE BRASSIERE

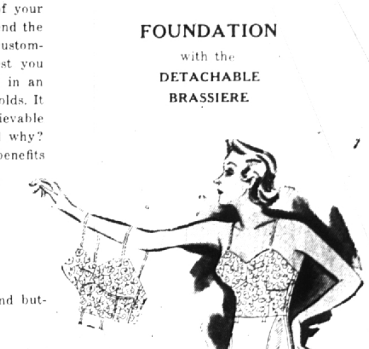

It's the look for the young figure guarding youthful curves and the not-young rejuvenating them. Thrill, the original uplift, is styled to meet the needs of every degree of bust development.

● of Satin Latex
● silk poplin
● heavy brocaded coutil
● also heavy two-way stretch elastic

For all Figure Types $1.00 to $5.00

This is just a tip to the wise. If you want a foundation that will fit every line and curve of your body, and don't like to spend the money necessary for a custom-made garment, we suggest you hustle here and be fitted in an Artist Model. It fits. It molds. It flattens. It does unbelievable things to your figure, and why? Because it combines the benefits of separate girdle and brassiere fit... with the smooth, unbroken line that only a one-piece foundation can give. And it's perfectly easy... four tiny invisible tabs and buttons do the trick.

There are other advantages, but we won't go into those now. We just don't want you to spend any more time and trouble looking for the right foundation. We have it here!

Which is yours?

There's nothing more important in this fashion age than knowing what type you are and making the most of it! That's why we are so enthusiastic about these American Lady foundations. Divided into 6 different types... as all women are... they do the most good for you in the place where you most need to be done good for! If you are the tall full hip type whose hips need flattening, ask for the one right type foundation for you, and miraculously you'll find that your hips are flattened. But whichever one of the 6 figure types you are, and you must be one of the six, you will be delighted with the results from your American Lady!
