Left-Overs Make Old Creole Dishes

Creole cookery has held an individual place in the cuisine of these famous regions, the merging of the customs of France, Spain, Mexico, the Choctaw Indians and old colored Mammies from New Orleans. Many of the dishes are made from small portions of a number of ingredients and the use of pungent sauces, in this way the house-keeper can easily use left-overs.

Creole Hash
Use equal parts of ground cooked meat and potatoes, some minced onion, chopped green pepper, salt and black pepper to taste. Add butter. Mixture is put in at the last. Cook and cook very slowly for 1-2 hours. Turn once and cut until the crust is crisp and tender like thin French pastry.

Meat Loaf
To 3 cups of cooked meat mix a small slice of suet, 1-2 cup of salt, mushrooms, 1-2 teaspoon each of mushrooms, 1-2 teaspoon each of salt, onion, 2 slices of ham, a dash of cayenne. Add the beaten yolks of 2 eggs and moisten with milk. Put in a greased pan and top with strips of bacon and fill with mixture. Bake in hot oven with lid on top. Bake 40 minutes in a rather hot oven.

Fig Fritters
Combine 1 cup of flour, sifted, with 1-2 teaspoon of baking powder, a pinch of salt, 1 tablespoon of sugar, 1 tablespoon of butter, 2 eggs and 1-2 cup of cream and milk. Add the fruit last. Then have ready a kettle of deep very fat and drop the fritters in by tiny spoonfuls. They'll puff up and brown very nicely. Peel the figs, cut into pieces and sprinkle with sugar. Let stand for an hour. Add juice and fruit to the batter. Canned figs are equally good and, of course, need not be left to stand.

Lemon Fritters
Combine 1 cup of flour, 1-2 teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon baking powder, adding the beaten yolks of 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon of butter and 1 cup of water. Beat 1-2 cup of sugar and the juice and rind of 1 lemon. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites of 2 eggs. Fry in the same way as all fritters.

Chicken Gumbo
Cut up 4 or 5 lb. chicken and brown it in fat in a deep kettle along with a pound ice of ham. To this add 1 quart of diced okra, fresh or canned, 1 quart of tomatoes, fresh or canned, 1 large onion, chopped, a bit of hot red pepper and the herbs—some parsley bay leaf, thyme and a little horse-radish root. Before you cover the pot for a long, gentle simmering add 2 quarts of water and salt to taste. Simmer for several hours, very, very gently, on low heat. Serve with quantities of hot dry cooked rice.

Bean Croquettes
Take 2 cups of cooked beans, add salt and pepper to taste, 1 teaspoon vinegar and 1 tablespoon melted butter. Form into small balls, dip into beaten egg and roll in bread crumbs. Fry in hot fat and serve hot.

Creole Prelines
3 cups white sugar, 1 cup water, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 3 cups pecans.

Peas Cream Cake
Chop cups of peas almost to size as usual, 1 tablespoon of flour, 1 teaspoon of sugar, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 2 eggs.

Beat the yolks of the eggs well,
