

Children have great faith in the ability of Santa Claus to bring good things and little faith in the ability of God to bring them good things.

FIFTY-NINTH YEAR—NO. 36

AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF POPULAR AUTHOR NOW AT LIBRARY

Five Other Editions Added Including 'Laughing Gas'

The Autobiography of G. K. Chesterton is, perhaps, the most outstanding book in this week's collection of new editions at the Baldwin Public Library...

A Journal of a foreign correspondent perhaps could be taken less humorously than that of the great Chesterton, for Webb Miller in his book, 'I Found No Peace' does not take life any lightly and at his best in this book is definitely not a person with a too 'gladstone' personality...

WHETHER you are interested in building a new home, buying an existing home, homesteading or renting a home large or small, furnished or unfurnished, we can serve you satisfactorily.

HOW MUCH.....? That's the phrase we hear so often you've said it yourself. What does it mean?

We have, we honestly believe, the best answer to that question—two houses. Each of them has four big bedrooms and two baths, both are built of brick, well designed and in good condition.
