CAROL SERVICE IS PRESENTED

Baldwin 10-B Class Sponsors Impressive Program Friday Afternoon

The Ten B class of Baldwin High School presented the school with one of the most impressive and decorative ever to be given in the history of the high school in the past Friday. It was presented in the form of a Church Carol Service. The Girls Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. Caryell and the Boys' Choir from the Baldwin School made up the choir and the student body and parents and faculty could be called the congregation. The scene was a very impressive one; the music coming from above on the running track in the form of a brass quartet under the guidance of Mr. Benedit and the choir on the stage singing the carol with which the service was opened was a very appropriate one; O Come All Ye Faithful. After the closing carol the congregation filed out rather quietly and without the usual ruckus of a high school assembly and also with the Christmas spirit imbued in their hearts. The assembly was opened by the brass quartet playing "O Come All Ye Faithful" which was followed by the girls choir singing the same carol after the story of the song was told. The congregation joined in the singing of the carol and also the next one, "O Little Town of Bethlehem." Next came a Bohemian Rhapsody, "I'll Be Home for Christmas" sung by the girls choir. The fourth number was the Christmas carol, "I'll Be Home for a Midnight Choir," which was sung by the entire group. This was followed by the girls choir

Student Chatter

Ellen Jackson, Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, the boys and I went out to see Santa. I saw a Roll-Royce. A Ford was out and two new cars and fifty back seats and oh, well, just read any department store catalogue. Yes, I have been a good boy except when I skipped school last week and didn't study my lesson and smushed the car up and will have a few other things—uh, well, with Merry Christmas, Santa, Don't forget to tell somebody get a candy cane in the stocking.

Three cheers for Bob Meyers and Ward Conckbank for the boys who were made to look like those of a church with varnished pines, fringed in the corners with the hope of getting away with some of the portaying religious characters.

The boys' choir consisted of boys from the fifth and sixth grades of Parker School, Leo Bull-ton, Robert Dunn, Donald Bullman, Fred Kurlberg, Fred Knicker, and Dale Roberts. The seven boys who were story tellers of the songs are: Bill Seligman, Bill Voth, Benear Spurge, Kenneth Willy, George Ford, and Joseph Mark.

At the beginning Charles Griffin presented Mr. Caryell with a garland in behalf of the Ten B class.
