Many Enter Christmas Exhibit Sponsored By Hills Garden Unit

One of the most exciting pleasures of all this thrilling season is the decorating of tables for Christmas dinners and other festivities.

But the idea seems to be particularly appealing, judging from the many reservations received so far for the winter exhibit to be staged by the Bloomfield Hills National Farm and Garden Association Monday in the Guild Hall at Christ Church Cranbrook.

One of the most interesting exhibits will be the table decorations, on which will be enterprised representing holiday decorations characteristic of different countries.

Christmas Dinner Tables Among the first to enter the class for arranging winter bouquets of evergreens, berries and grasses, are Mrs. H. A. O'Dell, Mrs. Elith M. Farnish, Mrs. L. Purves, Mrs. Louis Kahn, Mrs. Henry Scripps Hoth, Mrs. J. W. Saunders, Mrs. F. W. Shull, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Joseph Hinshaw, Mrs. E. L. Kingensmith, and Mrs. P. K. Loid.

Not forgetting the invalid, and those who, because of temporary illness have to spend the holidays in bed, is the class for Ladies in Bed, which means the artistic arrangement of holiday trays.

Class For Gift Packages The knack of tying Christmas packages so as to make fingers fairly itchy to get at them, is indeed an art. One class is devoted entirely to Christmas packages.

Very numerous is the class for "special exhibits." Those entering are keeping to themselves just what the nature of their exhibits will be. Arranging exhibits are Mrs. W. G. Lorch, Mrs. Lyman Craig, Mrs. O'Dell, Mrs. Martin J. Wendell, Mrs. C. Howard Donnelly, Mrs. E. W. J. Linton, Mrs. J. Robert F. Swanson, Mrs. J. W. Saunders, Mrs. Aulenbach, and Mrs. Hirsch.

Mrs. Fox Chairman Mrs. Carlton Fox is in charge of arrangements and assisting her are Mrs. Kahn, Mrs. Forbush, Mrs. Purves. Those in charge of placing the tables for the various exhibits include Mrs. Nickerson, Mrs. Alan Wentz and Mrs. D. W. Hecht.

In charge of arrangements for the coffee hour are Mrs. Donald James and Mrs. Craig. Judging the contest will be Mrs. Leiger.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Grindley and their children, Jean and Robbie, of Puritan road were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stiles C. Smith of Cleveland for Thanksgiving and the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Whirl of Willets street were hosts at dinner Saturday for 10 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Reeder of Puritan road had as their guests for Thanksgiving and the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Adams, Mrs. William C. Adams and Robert Reeder, all of Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Fisher of Franklin Village returned Sunday from Pittsburgh, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Wells of Mobergan drive entertained at dinner Saturday evening, presiding the performance of the Village Players. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Cloud L. Gray and Mrs. Harry S. Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wragley of Rivenock road had as their guests for Thanksgiving Day, Mr. and Mrs. James Lee of Niles, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Johnson of Adams road were hosts on Thanksgiving Day at their dinner, including Mrs. Harry Lakemond, Mrs. George Doll, Katherine Doll, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Fisher, and their small son, Joseph Edward Fisher.

Here's How To Be On-Time For Movies

American housewives have discovered a new and simple way of keeping sand out of the matrimonial gears.

No longer do husbands come home, hungry and anxious to go to the movies, and then stalk through the house like avenging angels while neighbors drop in, telephones ring and other interruptions multiply.

Wives have discovered that husbands hate to be late to the movies, unless they themselves are clearly to blame, when it doesn't matter. Accordingly, on movie nights, the wise wife calls up her husband and tells him not to come home. She will meet him in town, she says, and will get tickets in advance.

So she buys tickets, does a bit of shopping and meets her husband for "high tea" near the theater, where some such treat as food as a toasted Dover or Western sandwich is obtainable. After charge less for admissions before 6 o'clock. Moreover, at that time, even for the most popular attractions, there are generally good seats available.

And it's much less trouble for the wives, which is another reason for the continued growth of this afternoon tea habit.

Mrs. George V. Reed of Madison avenue was hostess Wednesday at an informal luncheon.
