Fashion Tips

Fringe is to the fore again for afternoon wear. Fringe trimmed tunies or entire pan-els of fringe are used on af-ternoon frocks.

Pleats are being used on after-neon clothes, also, and are lovely in a sunburst effect from the neckline. For the jumor miss, knife-pleated skirts are very good.

The younger member of the family should use taffeta for evening. One particularly lowly model for dancing is rustling taffeta, printed in multi-colored autumn leaves.

Mainbocher is featuring long transparent coats with puffed sleeves of black tulle to be worn over simple princess evening dresses.
