MIRACLEAN Dry Cleaning Solvent is ALWAYS kept in a pure, hygienic, crystal-white condition . . . it is different from ordinary dry cleaning solvents . . . it does not contain the dirt, perspiration and oily BODY EXCRETIONS from other people's clothing . . . it is FILTERED . . . it is DISTILLED . . . it is put through the MIRACLEANING process which totally removes those odorous, oily compounds absorbed from other people's dirty clothing.

Ridley Cleaners, Inc., pay a great premium to the owners of the MIRACLEAN process for the exclusive right to MIRACLEAN our dry cleaning solvent . . . this process elevates MIRACLEAN far above ordinary dry cleaning methods.

Light As A FEATHER

MIRACLEAN is so light that it evaporates from your clothing in ten short minutes . . . thereby saving your clothes a tremendous amount of wear . . . clothing submerged in ordinary solvents, require approximately one hour of agitated tumbling to rid them of, even a part of, the heavy, odorous solvent. The reason is simple—MIRACLEAN makes our solvent oilless and odorless.

CLUB GROUPS HOLD LUNCHEON MEETS

Art and Literature Departments Plan Interesting Programs For Same Day

Two departments of the Birmingham Women's Club, the art and literature, will meet Monday for dessert luncheons at the homes of members.

Mrs. Charles S. Kinnison of Hartsdale road will be hostess to members of the art department for dessert luncheon at 1:30. Mrs. Thomas L. Tharber will be in charge of the afternoon, which will be devoted to a "Field Program." Assistant Mrs. Tharber will be Mrs. W. A. DeLee, Mrs. H. M. Bringhurst and Miss Adeline Cooke.

The literature department will meet at the home of Mrs. Harry Allen of West Maple avenue for a dessert luncheon at 1 p. m. Mrs. D. H. Harris and Mrs. Fred J. Crawford will give book reviews. The meeting of the World's Work department will be held Thursday, Feb. 20, at the home of Mrs. C. Murray of Hermit street at 2 p. m. Mrs. V. J. Snyder and Mrs. Fenton E. Mathews will be in charge of the program. Mrs. W. S. Thöackner is chairman of the department.

An interesting program has been planned for members of the American Home department, who will meet Thursday, Feb. 27, for luncheon at the Pallister Tea Room in Detroit, afterwards going to the Detroit Institute of Art to see the exhibition of paintings by Peter Paul Rubens.

Poem Is Read By Mrs. Hurd

Mrs. Muriel Jeffries Hurd, chairman of the poetry division, read the poem "Statue of Women's Clubs" at a recent meeting of the Birmingham Women's Club, of which she is a new member.

Expectancy
Beyond this day of sleet and snow
There lies another spring,
Of warming dawns and birds a wing.
And lilacs purple glow;
It nremates my soul . . . I sing
The faintest hymns that come and go
With patch-work quilts, the bits
and pieces
In thoughtful patterns. They cling.
These simple airs . . . odd broken tunes.
Like prisms in the hobnail
glasses
The sun will shine, this storm will pass.
I hum and polish silver spoons,
I know . . . I know
I sing . . . I sing
Of broken tunes, and spoons and glass.

Pro Musica Members Make Plans For Song Fest

Mrs. L. H. Thomas of Westwood drive will open her home Sunday afternoon, Feb. 23, for a Song Fest to be held by members of Pro Musica, a junior group sponsored by the Birmingham Musicale of which Mrs. Thomas presides.

Plans will be discussed for organizing boys' and girls' glee clubs within the group. An Entertainment Committee from the senior club will be appointed also to aid in program planning. Bill Gail is president of the junior group.

Village Players To Give Draine By Priestly

Village Players will give their next performance at the Playhouse, Saturday, Feb. 29, when "Dangerous Corner" a three-act play by E. Priestly, will be presented instead of the customary three one-act plays.

Mrs. Robert F. Tillotson is the director assisted by Mrs. L. E. Colgrove.
