HILLS GARDEN UNIT TO HAVE GALA DAY

Bloomfield Branch To Join
Gross Pointe Group In Sponsoring Meeting

A day filled with varied interests has been planned for members of the Bloomfield Hills Unit of the Women's National Park and Garden Association, Thursday, March 5, by the program committee, of which Mrs. Lyman Craig is chairman.

In the morning, members will gather at the Detroit Institute of Arts for a leisurely inspection of the Rubens exhibition. They will join with members of the Gross Pointe unit in sponsoring a luncheon at the Wardell, and the program which will follow at 2 p. m. in the Garden Center in the Institute of Arts building. Dr. A. M. Bacon of Western Reserve University in Cleveland, O., will be the speaker at the afternoon meeting. His subject will be "The Medical Value of Plants."

Invitation is extended by the Hills and Gross Pointe units to members of the Birmingham unit to attend both the luncheon and program.

Dr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Daniels of Barden drive were hosts at an informal supper party Sunday evening, having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Fekker, and Dr. and Mrs. David Kline, and Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Miller of Detroit.

400 Guests Play Bridge At D. A. R. Colonial Benefit

With 100 tables in play, members of Piety Hill Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, entertained approximately 400 guests Tuesday, at a colonial bridge benefit held in the Community House. Tables were placed throughout the lower floor, and additional guests arrived later in the afternoon for the tea.

Sweet peas and magnolias, arranged in dainty colonial bouquets with frills of paper lace, formed an unusual centerpiece for each of the two tea tables, which were laid with lace covers. On either side of the flowers, which were in low wide bowls, were tall crystal candelabras with burning tapers in the alternating pastel shades of orchid, yellow, green and rose.

Pouring tea at one table were Mrs. William L. Graham, regent of the chapter, and her mother, Mrs. Charles F. Bathrick of Battle Creek, former state regent. Presiding at the other table were Mrs. Delbert C. James and Mrs. Isaac S. Unger. A picturesque touch was added by the quaint colonial costumes worn by the members of the chapter to distinguish them from the guests.

Among the many reserving tables were Mrs. W. D. Thompson, Mrs. Henry Scripps Booth, Mrs. F. I. Klingler, Mrs. Walter Norley, Mrs. C. A. Newcomb, Jr., Mrs. H. J. Klingler, Mrs. Harry

GIRL'S CLUB PLANS PATRIOTIC DANCE

Red, White and Blue Decorations Will Mark Birthday Of Washington

Washington's birthday provided the inspiration for the "Hatchet Dance," which members of the Coronet Club will give Saturday evening at the Community House from 9:30 to 1:30.

Red, white and blue decorations will carry out the patriotic motif, as will the large silhouette of George Washington to be placed over the dance, where Bobby Grayson's orchestra will provide music for the dancing.

Yvonne Gay is in charge of the sale of tickets, Mary Jane McCurry and Betty Hill are on the advertising committee, and Helen Brown and Harriet Babcock are on the music committee.

Chaperoning the dance will be Dr. and Mrs. Clayton H. Gracey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Chissey, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Prussing, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reitter, Mr. Coley, Mrs. H. G. Perkins and Mrs. Franklin Fricker.

Tables also were reserved by the General Richardson Chapter of the Extra Parker Chapter of Royal Oak and the Fort Fortehartrain Chapter of Highland Park.

An entertaining feature was the Minuet danced by Beverly Jones and Margaret Sturgis, pupils of Miss Evelyn Livingston Smith. Assisting Mrs. Bigger with arrangements were Mrs. C. W. Halladay, Mrs. W. C. Crockett, Jr., Mrs. George J. Miller, Mrs. Edna M. George, Mrs. H. P. Halladay, Mrs. W. C. Jeffery, Mrs. William Hill, Miss Mrs. Foster Jones, Mrs. J. P. Jeffery, Mrs. W. E. Moher, Mrs. Charles F. Butters, Mrs. Glenn Coley, Mrs. H. G. Perkins and Mrs. Franklin Fricker.

Art Department Sees Picture In The Making

A program of unusual interest for members of the art department of the Birmingham Woman's Club was held Monday, following a desert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Charles S. Kinnison of Hawthorne road.

A demonstration in the development of an oil painting from the original sketch, was given by Mrs. Thomas L. Thurber, Birmingham artist, Mrs. Thurber selected as her subject a still life showing a bowl of calendulas with a window background on a table of Chinese red. While Mrs. Thurber worked on the picture, Mrs. Charles W. Crandall played a group of piano solos.

Group Meets To Plan Musical Tea As Benefit

Plans for a benefit musicale and tea to be held March 1, were discussed at a luncheon Tuesday, at which Mrs. Frank J. McGinnis of Aspen road, was hostess.

Mrs. Carson C. Bingham was appointed chairman of the committee arranging the musical program, Mrs. J. B. Adams was named as publicity director, and Mrs. E. P. Parviz was chairman of the refreshment committee.

Others attending the luncheon were Mrs. C. J. O'Connor, Mrs. W. B. Rogers, Mrs. Henry M. Fisher, Mrs. Edward Hayes and Mrs. Bingham, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Jarvis.
