Rambling Reverie

Misunderstood. You women just don't seem to understand the ghastly suffering we men undergo when our children are born. I'm tired of the Committee of Public Safety, for example. Day after day they labor long and hard to keep a woman safe, physically and physically, but you should be a little kinder to them. I'm tired of being a Blenko, a sea was born.

The teacher was telling his class about the conquest of Alexander the Great. "When Alexander had conquered India," he said, "what do you think he did? Do you think he gave a great feast to celebrate a triumph? No—he sat down and wept."

LET'S GET THIS STRAIGHT Every honest tax expert knows that the idealistic principle of "ability to pay" is a sham and a fraud in connection with most forms of fiscal legislation.

FEAR AND INTELLIGENCE RETARD THE HUMAN RACE Everywhere, up and down Europe, the fighting men and the fighting machines are gathering. And for what—if not because every nation is deathly afraid of every other?

HELL BENT FOR ELECTION? "Hell Bent for Election" is the title of a book, short one, recently written by James P. Warburg, Democratic New York banker who was a former economic adviser of the President.

Consistently Cautious

Judge—"You say the officer arrested you while you were quietly minding your own business?" Prisoner—"Yes, your honor." Judge—"You were quietly attending to your own business, tending to your own business, making no noise or disturbance of any kind?" Prisoner—"None whatever, sir, your honor." Judge—"What is your business?" Prisoner—"I'm a burglar."

And Pay And Pay And Pay Buffalo Times: Chicago locality expert says women spend a lot of money in beauty parlors to please the men. That's all right. The men pay the bills.

REFLECTIONS BY FRANK A. GARBUITT Street Commissioner F. F. Roosevelt was Governor of New York; the State surplus was $80,452,494—four years later the State deficit was $96,713,695.

"HELL BENT FOR ELECTION?" Below are two short extracts from the book. It is worth reading whether you believe it or not.

"Are you in the habit of speaking to girls you don't know?" "Yes. The girls I do know won't speak to me."—Answers, Magnate.
