'RADIO' AMATEURS ON MOCK PROGRAM

Local Talent Given 'Audition' at St. James' Church as Sponsor

An amateur radio hour, which will never go on the air, was enjoyed by an appreciative audience Tuesday evening at an "audition," in the parlors of St. James' church served as the studio. Lake Leap Year means to the girl nowadays a chance to go independently as a stag. "Why pick only one good dancer an escort, when one can stay it, and cut in on as many as one likes," seems the way of taking up the situation.

This is how it appears, judging from the growing line of "stags" held Saturday evening at the Community House. The plan of the dance was to carry out the ancient and honorable tradition of Leap Year, by having the girls extend invitations to the boys, and manage both social and economic angles of the dance.

A number of girls rose early to their opportunity and invited escorts, but an equally large and growing number have indicated their preference to go as stags. Although some girls are still in doubt, a number have made up their minds without hesitation, one way or the other. Among the stags will be Mayfa Jean Gracy; Helen Brown, Florence Brotherton, Virginia Ann Burt, Betty Minn Forsyth, Virginia Hart, Gordy Owens, Barbara Ruth Seagar, John Baker, Margerie Adams and Marguerite Ustak.

Among those planning to attend with escorts are June Babcock with Jack Cummings, Mary Jane McCurry with Johnny Hayes, Marion Prussing with Bob Peabody, Genevieve Gay with Don Porteous, Bobette Wiley with Bob Savages, Alice Buford with Lloyd Peterson, Jr., Betty Ann Pease with David White, Louise Moxey with Ralph Hoodnagle, Barbara Birtch with Tim Walton, Marian Welcher with Bob Donaldson and Harriet Babcock with Don Scriven.

Mrs. S. A. Stolberg of Rivencok road gave a surprise dinner party Monday evening in honor of the 21st birthday of her son, Thomas. The guests included Miss Jane Peabody, Miss Betty Birtch, Miss Erma Dignan of Detroit, the Misses Jane and Betty Lou Webster, and Thomas and Harold Stober and Harry Scott, both of Detroit.
