GINGER ROGERS is a girl to be pitted, though you may not think so when you consider those gay, glamorous pictures that she makes with the limo-footed Fred Astaire. But it's because of those same pictures that Ginger has a grievance.

For it's as a result of all that dancing that Ginger's feet hurt. She has to practice the various new routines for days at a stretch, and then do them over and over again for the picture.

You'd think that would make a life feel that, when her work was done, she'd had enough dancing. But not so with Ginger Rogers at all—when she arrived in New York recently for a vacation she announced that she was going to see a lot of new plays—and do a lot of dancing! As for her partner, Fred Astaire, he's so happy these days because of the arrival of his brand new, he says that he doesn't know whether he's on his head or his heels.

Key Francis has a lot of fun when she deports Hollywood; she is one of the few actresses who doesn't look weary when she's not working; as a result of that fact, few people recognize her and she can go to the theaters and night clubs without being mobbed by admirers. She doesn't depend on dark glasses, either.

If you have sat and suffered through some of the shorts that supplemented feature pictures, and decided that you could think up better ones yourself, here's your chance. Centaur Films, a new organization, would like to have the public submit ideas for short subjects—and they'll give away an automobile each day for the best idea presented!

Errol Flynn, who became famous overnight as a result of his looks and his acting in "Captain Blood," is one of the few movie stars who have really written a book—itself. I mean, a good publisher has accepted it. He's written everybody of all those announcements of the novel that Jean Errol Flynn has written several novels that have been published, of course, they're good enough so that she can abandon the screen for the typewriter any time she wants to. She returned to the stage briefly last long ago, but the play was not a success, and now she's going to make some more pictures in England.

Mary Pickford just can't stop working. As if producing pictures weren't enough, she's going to broadcast again—this time from the projection room of her home, Pickfair.

Isabel Jewell is finally getting the breaks that she has wanted. She did very well, indeed, in "A Tale of Two Cities," then she turned in an excellent performance in "Casting Zero." So she was given a test for the role of "Lotta" in "The Good Earth," for which practically everybody, including Anna May Wong, has been tested, and so far hers is the best. They're going to get at the making of this picture at last, and a good thing it is, too—the planning and discussing of it have been going on everlastingly, it seems.

Popular football players used to sell books after they were graduated from college. Now they go into the movies, if they can. Nick Lukats, a Notre Dame star, is the latest recruit.

ODDS AND ENDS... That weekly program of Bing Crosby's has become one of the most popular on the air. Add "The Ghost Goes West" to the pictures you really must see... Margaret Sullivan, who is too, too temperamental to actually order, strongly things in a scene for "The Moon of the Home"... Douglas Fairbanks has sold "The Mark of Zorro" to Twentieth Century-Fox, and reluctantly, because he wanted to make it again himself... With songs added, it will probably be used for Lawrence's... Myrna Loy may be teamed with Robert Montgomery... John Barrymore at last lost his job in "Romeo and Juliet," however, he said that he'd have to do better work, he improved so fast that he's turning in one of his best performances.

"I think it's a shame," said one, "to send all those nice Marines to China. What will they do there?" "What'll they do?" replied the other. "Ain't you ever been out with a Marine?"

Birmingham Recreation Ladies' team finished in 10th place in the Central States tournament at Toledo Sunday, and Clara Wilson who turned back the Five Foods team won 6th place in the singles.

Members of the local Exchange Club's contract bridge duplicate team journeyed to farmington earlier this week and dropped a close match there, losing the contest by 250 points. In a previous clash between the two teams in Birmingham, the local card players turned back the farmington team by a decisive score.

"My... HOW HE HAS GROWN!"

... If we were to show graphically the growth of The Birmingham Eccentric during the past 8 years (the period of our greatest growth since 1878), and if we were to use the figure of our trademark, the Town Crier, the crier would be TRIPLED in size... such has been our climb in sales through even these depression years... furthermore this momentum is quickening more and more each successive year indicating a rugged health in organization and management.

... to explain our exceptional record... a vital and energetic interest in each piece of printing produced by us... a well developed and alert salesmanship contacting buyers from their side of the desk rather than from ours... and the most capable craftsmen in or near metropolitan Detroit lending their necessary experience and judgment to the mechanical interpretation and execution of each job as it is routed through the plant... and that is, essentially, the why and wherefore of our growth... simply because we insist on custom-building each printing order placed with us.

ED WYNN RETURNS TO AIRWAVES

Ed Wynn, famous comedian of stage, screen and radio, returns to the air after a seven months' rest, in a new comedy role, "Gulliver, the Traveler." This photograph was taken as "Gulliver" signed a contract with his new sponsor, D. S. Eddie, president of Plymouth. Wynn's new program, from 9:30 to 10 P. M., E.S.T., over the Columbia network, will be a world-wide broadcast, as it will be seen by short wave to Europe, and all parts of the world. The program will also include Lennie Hayton's orchestra, the King's Men and a feminine ensemble.
