HILLS GARDEN UNIT ADOPTS NEW PLAN

Mrs. Lynn Craig Hostess To Branch At Meeting Feb. 17

A new plan has been adopted by the Bloomfield Hills Unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association for this season. Instead of meeting in the Guild Hall at Christ Church Cranbrook, as formerly, the unit will meet in the homes of members.

Mrs. Lynn Craig of Oak Knoll Farms will be the first hostess to open her home for a meeting, which will be held Monday, Feb. 17, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Ruth Mosher Place of the Detroit News garden department, will speak on "Spring Planting."

Mrs. Maurice Castell will discuss the greens market operated to provide a market for the products of farm women. Mrs. Louis Kahn, president of the Hills unit, has received an invitation which is extended to all members of her unit from the Rochester unit, to attend a meeting of the latter group in the Rochester Tower Hall, Monday at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Charles W. Burton of Detroit, will speak on "Seed Frames and Soil Preparation."

Community House Will Sponsor Bridge Tournament

Birmingham bridge enthusiasts are invited to enter a tournament which will be sponsored by the Community House, and which will begin Monday evening at the house, at 8 p. m. Everett Judson will be in charge of play with a staff of able assistants. Mr. Judson has had a wide experience in tournament play both here and in the East.

Those interested may obtain information concerning the details of the tournament from Mrs. R. L. Fletcher, chairman of the committee in charge, or from Mrs. Satis York Osborne.
