be disproved, then we nervey one thanks and appreciation.

Governor Fitzgerald has always been a comparitively poor man, and he really knows something of the value of money. This character value, reflected in the policies of his present high office, are of inestimable taulae today when so many people still believe that you can have your cake and also eat it.

Periodic Auto Inspection
Society should demand, and get, periodic motor inspection of automobiles. Modern motor cars are verificable flying bullets; good brakes decent tires, capable drivers, are essential to a maximum of safety on the modern highways. Society should see that it is protected against those accidents that may arise from faulty human and mechanical features of a fast-moving motor car. Society demands, and gets, expert inspection of stemboats, land and marine boliers, scales, weights and measures, public health, and many other things useful to human life. Why not motor cars and drivers?

An Honest Face

A hotel guest was telling the clerk at the desk the difficulty he had encountered endeavoing to each not understand the many care operator's license and duplicated its signature. Soil they wouldn't cash it." He clerk said: "Paper identification coeffect cards from hotels, business stationery and what not."

At this point another guest entered the conversation. He said: "Pardon the intrusion but I'd like to sk a questions: What does a hotel manager judge man by? I have been cashing checks at small banks and horeds for years."

"Yes,' said the clerk, "I never saw you before the I'd cash your check." "But what do you go by?" persisted the guest.

"Yes,' said the clerk, "I never saw you before the I'd cash your check." "But what do you go by?" persisted the guest.

"What you are is pretty clearly written on your face, said the clerk.

Of course there are many exceptions but it still appears to be true in the main that a man's thought and life write themselved on his face.

our Party's sacred platform repudiated.

Governor Fitzgerald Should Know The Value Of Money Every incumbent political party claims for itself "balanced budget." When the Democrats are in office, and claim to have operated the State within itself allows ance, the Republicans yell and shout about "Democratic extravagance, high taxes," etc., etc.

When the Republicans are in office—as they are today in Michighn—they, too, claim efficiency and economy in the operation of government; also, the "outs," meaning the Democrats, yell and hout "extravagance, high taxes," etc., etc.

Governor Fitzgerald has repeatedly stated of lath this administration is operating within budgetary allowances. He is vigerous in his poposition to a policy of "spending ourselves into false prosperity," and in this he ought to win the support of every serious-minded citizen.

Personally, this newspaper is strongly opposed to a number of the Fitzgerald has registrate income cannot be disproved, then we hereby offer him our humble thanks and appreciation.
