

STAR DUST Movie • Radio

Picture the delight of the huge audience at a hockey game between a New York team and one from Montreal the other evening...

Joe E. Brown who was with him during one of the intermissions...

It's too bad, in a way, that "Barbary Coast" and "Frisco Kid" come along at the same time...

Everyone is wondering how southerners will like "So Red the Rose"...

Don't miss Lily Pons' first picture, "I Dream Too Much"...

It wipes that stain out of your wash bowl, bath tub and stall shower immediately...

BRAVO It wipes that stain out of your wash bowl, bath tub and stall shower immediately...

SPECIAL SUNDAY RATES for Long Distance telephone calls

and REDUCED PERSON-TO-PERSON RATES after 7 every evening

EFFECTIVE January 15, the Michigan Bell Telephone Company extends to all day Sunday the same reduced rates...

ALSO... EFFECTIVE January 15, the Michigan Bell Telephone Company offers reduced rates on person-to-person calls every night after 7 p. m. and all day Sunday.

tionment rate is more than 35 cents. The discount on most person-to-person calls is the same in money as on station-to-station calls between the same places.

TYPICAL THREE-MINUTE RATES

Table with columns: From, To, Station-to-Station, Person-to-Person

decently sing. She shows an amazing talent for comedy. You've read about all the famous quintuplets during the making of their scenes in "The Country Doctor"...

Do you tune in your radio on the broadcast that opened the NBC station in Hollywood? There certainly were plenty of celebrities on the air—but as for me, I liked Mary Livingston's gaily poem best of anything I heard...

Al Jolson

It's too bad, in a way, that "Barbary Coast" and "Frisco Kid" come along at the same time...

Everyone is wondering how southerners will like "So Red the Rose"...

Don't miss Lily Pons' first picture, "I Dream Too Much"...

It wipes that stain out of your wash bowl, bath tub and stall shower immediately...

BRAVO It wipes that stain out of your wash bowl, bath tub and stall shower immediately...

SPECIAL SUNDAY RATES for Long Distance telephone calls

and REDUCED PERSON-TO-PERSON RATES after 7 every evening

EFFECTIVE January 15, the Michigan Bell Telephone Company extends to all day Sunday the same reduced rates...

ALSO... EFFECTIVE January 15, the Michigan Bell Telephone Company offers reduced rates on person-to-person calls every night after 7 p. m. and all day Sunday.

tionment rate is more than 35 cents. The discount on most person-to-person calls is the same in money as on station-to-station calls between the same places.

TYPICAL THREE-MINUTE RATES

Table with columns: From, To, Station-to-Station, Person-to-Person

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Max Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Potter and Mr. and Mrs. Ferd M. Brock were the guests of Mrs. Clarence Boydell...

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Osborn of Waddington road left Saturday for New York City to sail Feb. 1 on the S. S. Europa for an extended tour in Germany.

Mrs. W. S. McLean of Waddington road had as her guests at luncheon and bridge Tuesday, Mrs. E. D. Buiherford, Mrs. H. A. Prast, Mrs. E. M. Vohmer, Mrs. George B. Wiley, Mrs. C. E. Ustick, Mrs. E. Herbet, Mrs. Norman James, Mrs. Edna T. Coombs, Mrs. Arnold C. Zhoop and Mrs. C. J. Whirl.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt G. Hallock of Adams road had as their dinner guests Saturday evening Mrs. William S. Lapham of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Tackett, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cramer, both of Detroit.

Mrs. Harry D. Wise of Bloomfield Village will be hostess at three tables for luncheon and bridge at her home today. Her guests will include Mrs. Peter K. Boyne, Mrs. Clarence K. Hotford, Mrs. William B. Rosevear, Jr., Mrs. Clyde A. Haefner, Mrs. Donald L. Gray, Mrs. John Horton, Mrs. Benjamin H. Amiel, Mrs. John E. Martin, Mrs. H. Victor Spike and Mrs. D. W. Russell.

Playing together at the Starr Commonwealth bridge benefit at the Community House Monday, were Mrs. Paul B. Bell, Mrs. Robert Essig, Mrs. Stanley Spiegl and Mrs. Earl R. Cain.

Mrs. Aude B. Fiske of Madison avenue will be hostess at a bridge luncheon at Devon Gables today.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Smith of Watkins street held an open house for about 30 guests Saturday evening, followed by a midnight supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton H. Patterson of Gooding road will be hostess at dinner Friday evening in honor of Han Neighbors of Holland. Their guests include Mrs. A. M. and Mrs. Arthur Kerman, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Tyree, Dr. and Mrs. Richard McKean, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Eden, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon B. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. George Gray Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Booth, Mrs. Jessie Winter and Mr. and Mrs. Meritt A. Cuddy of Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. John G. Wood of Radnor drive had as her guests for luncheon and bridge Wednesday, Mrs. Richard D. Young, Mrs. Claud W. Behn, Mrs. C. J. O'Connor, Mrs. George Thomas, Mrs. Frederick P. Dardick, Mr. John J. Hamel, Jr. and Mrs. George T. Shupert. Mr. and Mrs. Wood plan to leave Feb. 9 for Bermuda, where they will remain for a month.

The Women Golfers of Orchard Lake Country Club will hold one of their series of winter bridge luncheons Monday, Jan. 27, at the home of Mrs. Frank L. Dory of Pontiac, at 1 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kent of Pilgrim road will sail Feb. 20 from New York City on a three weeks cruise to the West Indies.

Mrs. J. Z. Lander of Gleggery road will entertain 24 young guests at a supper Friday, the occasion being the ninth birthday of her daughter, Betty Jo Lander.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Chalk of Lakeview drive will have as their dinner guests Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Smith, attending the popular concert of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra with their guests.

Mrs. Joseph A. Sweeney of Lake Park drive, her sister, Mrs. Roy Rogers of Detroit; and Mrs. George J. Thomas of Devon Lane will sail Feb. 20 on the S. S. Britannica for a cruise to the West Indies and South America, returning in about three weeks. Mrs. Sweeney will be hostess at a Seaside party Tuesday, Feb. 1, for 25 members from Providence Hospital in Detroit. After the ride, the guests will return for a buffet supper at Mrs. Sweeney's home.

In honor of the ninth birthday of her daughter, Patricia, Mrs. Willis T. Higbie of Tilbury road, will give a supper party Saturday evening for a group of little girls including Betty Mills, Joan Lambert, Betty Jean Enerson, Patty Foster, Ann Hansen, Ann McCafferty and Catherine Kemp.

Mrs. Walter A. Huffman of Grove street had as her guests at bridge Tuesday evening, Mrs. Howard D. Crull, Mrs. Miles W. Robinson, Mrs. Eugene Hubbard, Mrs. Arthur N. Wingerden, Mrs. Claud Morrow, Mrs. G. Dewey Kimball, Mrs. Emerson C. Brown, Mrs. Charles T. Benis, Mrs. A. W. Berndt, Mrs. Heber P. Gahn, and Mrs. Omer Lewis.

YOUNG PEOPLE IN CHARGE OF SERVICE

For the last of the special January Sunday morning services at the First Methodist church, the young people of the church will be in charge. Music will be furnished by the choir, especially augmented by young people. Representatives of the youth will also serve as ushers, and take a large part in the service.

Why do we go to church? will be given by Earl Ziegler, and the minister will speak on "The Youth's Challenge to Christian Youth."

Various classes and groups of the church will attend with their teachers and leaders.

First Baptist Church, Willis at Baker...

First Baptist Church, Willis at Baker... A Fourth Communion will be held...

Christians Science Church, Westwood at North Street... Church services Sunday at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

First Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. Dr. B. H. Horner, pastor... Church services Sunday at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

First Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. Dr. B. H. Horner, pastor... Church services Sunday at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

St. James Episcopal Church, Rev. Walter L. Korsh, Rector... Church services Sunday at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

Redeemer Lutheran Church, Rev. Theodore G. Wagners, pastor... Church services at 11 A. M.

Holy Name Catholic Church, Rev. James W. Lester, Pastor... Sunday Masses 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 P. M.

Calvary Church (Lutheran), Rev. Dr. S. S. Marshall, pastor... Church services Sunday at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

United Presbyterian Church, Rev. H. E. Lohapp, of Auburn Heights... Church services at 11 A. M.

Embury Methodist Church, Rev. Dr. S. S. Marshall, pastor... Church services at 11 A. M.

Christ Church Cathedral, Rev. Dr. S. S. Marshall, pastor... Church services at 11 A. M.

First Presbyterian Church, Rev. Dr. S. S. Marshall, pastor... Church services at 11 A. M.

St. John of the Hills Church, Rev. Dr. S. S. Marshall, pastor... Church services at 11 A. M.

Mrs. Aaron H. Whitaker of Fairfax road entertains next members of her book group Tuesday.

By J. F. WENZL, JR. Deputy Commissioner

Boy Scout Week this year, February 7 to 13, marks the end of a quarter century of Scouting in America.

Several years later with the assistance of A. Douglas Johnson, then Chief Executive of the District Council, and Mr. Underhill of the same organization, the First Birmingham District Council was formed.

In 1925 with Clarence Cummings, Sr., as Scoutmaster, Troop B-2 under the leadership of Elmer Wiseman, Not long after this time the United Presbyterian Church assumed the leadership of the organization.

Several years later with the assistance of A. Douglas Johnson, then Chief Executive of the District Council, and Mr. Underhill of the same organization, the First Birmingham District Council was formed.

In 1925 with Clarence Cummings, Sr., as Scoutmaster, Troop B-2 under the leadership of Elmer Wiseman, Not long after this time the United Presbyterian Church assumed the leadership of the organization.

Several years later with the assistance of A. Douglas Johnson, then Chief Executive of the District Council, and Mr. Underhill of the same organization, the First Birmingham District Council was formed.

In 1925 with Clarence Cummings, Sr., as Scoutmaster, Troop B-2 under the leadership of Elmer Wiseman, Not long after this time the United Presbyterian Church assumed the leadership of the organization.

Several years later with the assistance of A. Douglas Johnson, then Chief Executive of the District Council, and Mr. Underhill of the same organization, the First Birmingham District Council was formed.

In 1925 with Clarence Cummings, Sr., as Scoutmaster, Troop B-2 under the leadership of Elmer Wiseman, Not long after this time the United Presbyterian Church assumed the leadership of the organization.

Several years later with the assistance of A. Douglas Johnson, then Chief Executive of the District Council, and Mr. Underhill of the same organization, the First Birmingham District Council was formed.

In 1925 with Clarence Cummings, Sr., as Scoutmaster, Troop B-2 under the leadership of Elmer Wiseman, Not long after this time the United Presbyterian Church assumed the leadership of the organization.

Several years later with the assistance of A. Douglas Johnson, then Chief Executive of the District Council, and Mr. Underhill of the same organization, the First Birmingham District Council was formed.

In 1925 with Clarence Cummings, Sr., as Scoutmaster, Troop B-2 under the leadership of Elmer Wiseman, Not long after this time the United Presbyterian Church assumed the leadership of the organization.

Several years later with the assistance of A. Douglas Johnson, then Chief Executive of the District Council, and Mr. Underhill of the same organization, the First Birmingham District Council was formed.

In 1925 with Clarence Cummings, Sr., as Scoutmaster, Troop B-2 under the leadership of Elmer Wiseman, Not long after this time the United Presbyterian Church assumed the leadership of the organization.

Several years later with the assistance of A. Douglas Johnson, then Chief Executive of the District Council, and Mr. Underhill of the same organization, the First Birmingham District Council was formed.

Shelton Wright will assure the campers of every sleeping comfort. The log lodge will continue to be used as the dining hall and campfire meeting place.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

Without a doubt, the cause for Scouting in Birmingham is the untiring efforts of the local District Council, Scoutmasters, and the generosity of Col. Edwin S. George, who in 1923 turned over to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Scouts for use as a camp site, a hiker's ground, sixty acres of his property stretching north from Lower Long Lake to Forest Lake.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Minor (Dorothy Gail) of Greenwood avenue announce the birth of a son, William Gail Minor, Monday, Jan. 20.

Hell Bent For Election 50c

A book that everyone, who, whether or not they have ever taken an interest in politics should read, due to the fact that this is one year that a thorough knowledge of politics is absolutely necessary.

"Birmingham's Shop of Books and Gifts" 127 W. MAPLE PHONE 1225

Down Go Flour Prices! 3 DAY SALE

EXTRA FANCY FLOURS

THURSDAY — FRIDAY — SATURDAY

Velvet Cake and Pastry Flour 5-Lb. Sack 25c

Self Rising Pancake Flour 5 LB. SACK Backus Wheat Flour

100% Whole Wheat Old Fashioned Graham 25c

Yellow or White Corn Meal

Fresh Roasted 9 A. M. COFFEE 1 lb. 15c Domino or Jack Frost SUGAR 5-lb. box 28c

White Meat TUNA FISH 1 can 10c Kidder PEARS 2 large cans 29c

HOT MEAT SPECIALS PRIME STANDING RIB ROAST 25c CHOICE BEEF POT ROAST 19c

FRESH GROUND BEEF 15c RIB-END PORK LOIN 19c BIRMINGHAM Economy Market 303-311 EAST MAPLE PHONE 771 WE DELIVER — OPEN EVENINGS 'TIL 9 SHOP ON EAST MAPLE PLENTY OF FREE PARKING!