OPEN HUNT PLANS FOR COSTUME RIDE

Washington's Birthday Celebration Will Include Dinner and Dance

Bloomfield Open Hunt will observe the birthday of George Washington with a special celebration Thursday evening, Feb. 20, beginning with a costume ride at 6:45. Dinner will follow at eight, and the remainder of the evening will be devoted to dancing. Clay E. Herbst is in charge of arrangements.

Bernard E. Hopper was re-elected president at the executive meeting held last Thursday evening. F. W. Shuell will continue as vice-president, and Kenneth K. Martin was returned to office as treasurer. The only change in the official slate was the election of C. D. Pierce as secretary to succeed H. M. Smith. Clay E. Herbst was the only new member of the board elected. Besides the four officers and Mr. Herbst, the board also includes C. F. Wilson, W. L. Tracy, G. W. Tremble, C. C. Wirtz, C. J. McDonald, W. G. Lerehen and John L. Lovett.

Noted Anti-War Crusader To Speak To Local Groups

Every modern woman interested in the cause of world peace is no doubt familiar with the function of the Conference for the Cause and Cure for War, which meets annually in Washington, D. C., and with the noted chairman of the Conference, Miss Josephine Schain.

Miss Schain, who has become an international figure as an anti-war crusader, and who presided at the 1936 Conference which closed Jan. 24, has accepted the invitation extended by Mrs. Charles J. Shain to speak in Birmingham Feb. 7, at the Community House, at a meeting to be sponsored by five women's organizations. Miss Schain's subject will be "America's Hope for Peace."

The five organizations cooperating, include the Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs, the Birmingham unit of the American Association of University Women, The Birmingham Woman's Club, the Birmingham League of Women Voters, and the Girl Scouts.

Preceding Miss Schain's address at 7:30, there will be a luncheon to which all women interested in social and political activities are invited. Seated at the speakers' table will be representatives of the Y. W. C. A., A. Flint, the A. A. U. W., Ann Arbor and the League of Women Voters of Mr. Clemens. Reservations for the luncheon may be made through Mrs. H. S. Barlingame, the Community House or Mrs. Shain. Those unable to be present at the luncheon, may attend the lecture.

Miss Schain's knowledge of world affairs is based on her experience as a traveler and student of foreign nations. In 1935, she served as chairman of the American delegation to the Congress of the International Alliance of Women, which met in April at Vildiz Palace in Istanbul, Turkey. After traveling extensively in Turkey, Miss Schain visited Russia, the Baltic States and Germany, where she made a special study of social and industrial conditions.

From her travels a year ago, Miss Schain spent a considerable time in Europe in 1935, studying the municipal government of many of the principal cities. In 1927, she attended the sessions of the Assembly of the League of Nations, and in 1928, she spent six months in the Near East, traveling in Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Turkey, Iran, Persia and Russia. She was one of three American women sent by the Committee on the Cause and Cure of War, to attend the London Naval Conference in 1930. In this country, Miss Schain is a member of the national committee of the Birmingham audience of the Y. W. C. A., and a former national director of Girl Scouts. On her return to the East, she will embark on an extended international lecture tour as a representative of the Alliance for Social Citizenship.

Miss Schain will be introduced by the Birmingham audience of Mrs. Shain, director of the class in international relations, sponsored by the local unit of the A. A. U. W. Members of the committee cooperating include, for the Oakland County Federation, Mrs. Fred Gross and Mrs. R. F. Pearson of Royal Oak; Mrs. George Thompson of Ferndale and Mrs. H. P. Dolph of Hazelton; for the A. A. U. W., Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, Mrs. Burlingame and Mrs. W. A. P. Adams; for the Birmingham Women's Club, Mrs. John S. Black; Mrs. W. S. Toothacker and Mrs. V. J. Snyder; for the League of Women Voters, Mrs. E. F. McKinney and Mrs. N. J. Hadjilovic; for the Girl Scouts, Mrs. Lee S. White and Mrs. F. W. Dullos.

THE OLD MASTER* COMES OUT OF THE KITCHEN

to Remark "George Rector speaking. Today I want to explode some popular ideas about cooking . . . such as the belief that Crepes Suzettes can be properly made only in Paris, and that American apple pie is no good anywhere outside of a New England breakfast, and that steak not broiled over charcoal has been shamefully mistreated. * * * That charcoal broiling business, now . . . there's a pretty bit of nonsense!

"I know some good and honest and estimable citizens who swear by charcoal broiling. When it comes to steaks, they will have no traffic with the ordinary way of fixing them. This select little group will turn up their collective and respective noses at any piece of meat broiled in the common manner. And that state of affairs is too bad. Yes it is!

"Give me an electric cook stove, a good thick juicy Portéhouse, and all the trimmings, and I will guarantee you as succulent and tender and deliciously-flavored a platterful of steak as you have ever tasted in your born days. What is more, I would like to invite all these particularly fussy gentlemen to dinner, and let them judge for themselves about the cooking."
