PLAYERS REVIVE OLD FAVORITES

Village Players have cast a few backward glances in the direction of one-act plays which found favor with both actors and audiences of several seasons ago.

The first of the new plays to be presented will be "Society Notes," by Winifred L. Hommedieu, W. A. P. John will be the director of the revival program. It will be presented under the direction of Dr. J. B. Hassberger, assisted by Mrs. Gardner M. Cobb. The last of the three to be produced again will be "Love In A Cupboard," by W. D. Howells. Mrs. W. Laurance Shaffner will be the director, with Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., as her assistant.

Mrs. Forsyth Named Head Of League For Coming Year

Mrs. Forsyth

Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth, wife of the rector of St. James' Episcopal church, was elected president of the League of St. James' Women for 1936, at the annual meeting held Wednesday at the Parish House.

Mrs. Otis W. Howard was elected first vice-president, and Mrs. Charles Elton Buck, second vice-president. Other officers who will serve for the coming year are: Mrs. Richard Fowler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Walter F. Kline, financial secretary; Mrs. Harold H. Shurtliff, recording secretary; and Mrs. Fred S. Cole, treasurer.

Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., will lead the way and means committee for the year. Mrs. Pease is the new chairman of social service, and Mrs. Donald F. Stanton, chairman of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Clarence G. Heintzler will direct religious education.

Delegates appointed to the District Conventions are Mrs. A. Usher and Mrs. Fred Sargent, with Mrs. George D. Clark and Mrs. Stanton as alternates.

Ponitz Speaker At Federation Meeting

Members of the Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs held a varied program Friday, when their monthly all-day meeting was held at the Community House. An outside speaker was H. J. Ponitz, assistant state director of educational projects and the planning division of the W.P.A. Mr. Ponitz's subject was "A Program of Continuous Education." To aid indigent young people between the ages of 16 and 25 to continue their education, the State is spending $51,000 a month, he told the group.

The morning session was devoted to a round table discussion on methods of encouraging love of music in the home, under the direction of Mrs. H. F. Ellis of Holly. Mrs. F. H. Tracy of Royal Oak reviewed "Vein of Iron" by Ellen Glasgow, and suggested a list of books for current reading.

OH—OH—OH—AND IT COMES OUT HERE!

How "the music goes down" and "comes out" will be explained by a group of young Birmingham musicians when the Pro Musica meets at the Community House Sunday at 4 p. m.

The program will consist of demonstrations on various instruments by a group of local boys who are learning to master them. Donald Main will show how music may be wrested from an oboe. James Cummings will explain where music comes out of a clarinet, and Edward Horton will give a demonstration of playing on the fife.

Eugene Merz will reveal the mysteries of the French Horn. Harry Howell will explain the secrets of a trombone's private life and Bob Solorbuz will undertake the same with his trumpet.

Invitation is extended to all those interested, to attend.

BRETROTHAL NEWS IS MADE KNOWN

Miss Davis To Become Bride At October Wedding In East

An interesting engagement to be made known here on her return from New York, where it was announced during the holidays by her parents. The marriage will be solemnized in October at a church wedding in Brooklyn.

Miss Davis is the daughter of Associate Justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of New York. She received her schooling at the Dalton Academy and at the Randolph Mason Woman's College.

She is associated with the Horace Mann School for Boys and Colgate University. Although a member of the firm of Tamblin and Tamblin of New York, he is also associated with the Cranbrook Institution.

Defense Speaker

Col. Roosevelt

"National Defense" will be the subject of an address by Col. William B. Roosevelt, Jr., before members of Piety Hill Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at a meeting to be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Walter G. Stecker of Pilgrim road, when Mrs. Stecker and Mrs. Albert G. Wasny will be joint hostesses.

Col. Roosevelt is Colonel of the Field Artillery, Officers Reserve Corps, and National Vice-President of the Reserve Officers Association. He is also a member of the Association of Graduates of the United States Military Academy at West Point, from which he was graduated in 1913. Col. Roosevelt was on staff duty during the World War.

Assisting the hostesses at the meeting will be Mrs. C. V. Crook and Mrs. Clark C. Goulet, all reside at the tea table.

'Movies And Youth' To Be Theme Of Talk

When asked the question so frequently nowadays, "May I go to the movies?" parents are sometimes in doubt as to when to refuse and when to grant this privilege, to the young children.

Various phases of this common problem will be discussed by Miss Miller of the Merrill Palmer School of Detroit before members of the Parent Teacher Association of the Barnum School, Thursday, Jan. 16. Miss Miller's subject will be "Movies and the Youth."

The business meeting will begin at 3:30 p. m., with the program following at 4 p. m. Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Henry Stahlquist and Mrs. C. H. Reid, room-mothers for the 4-B grade.

New Officers Guests Of Honor At Tea

Mrs. John H. Savage of East Maple has arranged to host her home Wednesday afternoon for a tea in honor of the new officers of the Association of Holy Name Catholic Church. Mrs. Martin Wendell, retiring president, welcomed the new officers, headed by James, Edward R. Hayes, president-elect.

Other officers are: Mrs. Michael Collins, vice-president; Mrs. J. C. Parton, recording secretary; Mrs. F. J. Mulholland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Emil F. Baumgardner, treasurer.

Mrs. Walter Connolly and Mrs. J. C. O'Connor presided at the tea table.

Election Is Held By Local Oratorio Society

Mrs. J. K. Ormond of Waddington road was elected president of the Birmingham Oratorio Society at a meeting held Monday evening at the First Methodist church. Mrs. Raymond Freck was elected secretary and William Spence, treasurer of the Society.

Plans were discussed for various social activities throughout the year in addition to musical events. Henry James of Big Beaver retired as president of the Society. At the social hour which followed, Mrs. Byron McNeill was in charge of refreshments.
