

WOMEN'S GROUPS TO BRING SPEAKER

Josephine Schain of Washington, D. C., president of the Conference on the Cause and Cure for War, will be the principal speaker.

"Our Immediate Prospect for Peace," is the subject selected by Dr. Schain, who will come to Birmingham on the invitation of Mrs. Charles J. Shain, representing the five organized groups. Besides the County Federation, the groups include the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women, the Birmingham Women's Club, the League of Women Voters, and the Birmingham Girl Scouts.

Four Birmingham women's organizations and the Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs will unite to sponsor a meeting at the Community House, Friday, Feb. 7, when they will present Dr.

Dr. Schain's appearance in Birmingham will follow the annual session of the Conference of the Cause and Cure for War, which will convene in Washington Jan. 21 to 24th. She is also National Director of Girl Scouts and vice-president of the International Alliance for Suffrage and Equal Citizenship.

A luncheon at the Community House will precede the address by Dr. Schain.
