MISCUES COST KELLY FACTORY OVER ACME 9

Merchant Hurler Fans 10, Gives Up 7 Hits, But Loses 10-3

Kelly, ace hurler for the Birmingham Merchant's baseball team, deserved a better fate than that which befell him when he lost a well pitched game to the Acme Motor nine of Detroit to the tune of 10 to 3 last Sunday afternoon at the Municipal Stadium. Although outpitched his rival, striking out ten men and giving up only seven runs, Kelly was made the losing pitcher as a result of ten costly errors by his teammates.

Varin, who hurled for the Acme outfit, gave up eight hits while striking out only five men. Although his team made five errors, they were not costly, and the Acme team played good ball for Varin in the pinches.

Acme's big inning was the opening frame, when they pushed four tallies across the rubber. Although Kelly gave up only two base hits in this inning, his team made four errors at crucial moments, and Acme breezed through the remaining eight innings without being threatened by the locals.

"Big Richard" Forester cloaked the outstanding sock of the game in the fourth inning when he ripped out a clean homer with two men out and no one on the path- ways. Forester tagged another for extra bases in the sixth, but a circus catch by Reed, Acme's right fielder, robbed the big boy of another long drive. Diemer had a good day at the plate, too, getting two singles and a double out of three official hits to the plate. Acme's star performer was Hae- bert, who got three out of seven, two singles and a home run.

The Merchants' next game will be with Walled Lake next Sunday afternoon at Springdale Park.

The Merchants defeated the lake crew, 5 to 4 in the first game of the current season.

B'ham Theatre Team
Lambasts Rosedale

The Birmingham softball team defeated the heavy hitting outfit representing Rosedale Theatre in a wild scoring game at Springdale Park last Thursday. After the smoke of battle had cleared away, the locals found themselves on top, 22 to 14.

Rosedale's players, headed by Manager V. V. Ward, who formerly was connected with the Birmingham Theatre, got off to a flying start by tallying all of their runs during the first three innings while the local team was being held to one run. However, the home towners started connecting in their half of the third inning and before the side had been retired, they had blasted 11 runs across the plate.

Pulling up within striking distance of the opponents, Manager Lamby of the local squad made a few changes in his inner defense and thereafter the visitors were helpless against airtight fielding. Pounding away at Rosedale's finger, Birmingham continued to score throughout the balance of the contest, adding ten more markers to their total.

Around The Circuit — AMERICAN LEAGUE —

American League southpaws, thanks to the work of Bob Groves and Lefty Gomez, have a slight edge when it comes to victories compared with defeats, the left-handers having won 36 and lost 33 games, according to the results up to June 29.

Grove had won nine and lost two and Gomez won seven and lost three. Two others, Elton Hoesett and Earl Whitehill, were above the 300 mark with four wins and three defeats. Kleinschmids of New York had been even, one and one but the odds were in the red. Ostermuller had lost five and won four. Lloyd Brown had dropped six and won four. Van Atta five and won but one. Thornton Lee had been beaten twice while winning one and George Walberg had lost three out of four.

Only two home runs have been hit into the right field bleachers at Fenway Park, Boston, this season, both by Washington batters, Buddy Lewis and Joe Kukul.

The poll of the fans through out the country on sixteen players from each major league to take part in the All Star game at Boston July 7 is to be announced to- day. As many of the players conducting polls did not make known their votes as the contest went along and many of the fans forgot all about the provision that each club in each league must be represented, it is difficult to pre- dict just what players will be picked by the rosters.

Joe Mauer, who has led the American League catchers in some of the polls, will have to be over- look, however, as a result of his recent illness, which caused him to hand over the management of the American League All-Star team to Joe McCarthy, manager of the New York Yankees. School- boy Rowe of Detroit is another who will be unable to take part in the game.

"I guess there were fully seventy-five youngsters working out at Shibe Park last season," says Jimmy Fox, now with the Boston Red Sox, "and I then

The roster of American League bachelors, of course not counting the youngsters, who have broken into fast company the last year or so, is rather limited.

The Boston Red Sox and Chicago White Sox appear to have the most Harold (Maddy) Ruel and Pitcher Ted Lyons of Chicago top the list when length of league service is consid- ered. Infielders Henry Bonura and Jack Hayes of the Com- keytes also are single. The Red Sox bachelors are Al Schacht, coach, Catchers Moe Berg and Rick Ferrell and Pitchers Wes- ley Ferrell and John Margum. Other eligibles are Leon Goslin, Charley Gehring and Hank Greenberg of the Tigers, Bruce Campbell and Joe Vasmak of the Cleveland Indians.

June 16 was a great day for two American League players who had been out of the game for weeks. Bill Dickey of the Yankees cele- brated his return to action by dis- tinguishing a home run in his first time at bat while Bruce Campbell of the Indians, whose playing days had been thought to be ended, gathered three singles.

Gerald Walker of Detroit was up for his seventh time as a pinch hitter this season before he came through with a base hit.

When Jimmy Fox drove a home run high over the roof of the left field stands in Chicago, June 16, it was the third time he turned the trick while on one other occasion he hit one that dropped on top of the roof. Fox, by the way, is the only batter ever to hit a ball into the center field bleachers at Com-iskey Park when it is believed that Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig are the only ones ever to hit it over the right field stands.

"I guess there were fully seventy-five youngsters working out at Shibe Park last season," says Jimmy Fox, now with the Boston Red Sox, "and I then said I believed the only one who had a chance was Lee Ross, the pitcher who has looked pretty good this season."

Jim Oglesby, the big first base- man that Connie Mack bought from Los Angeles and who has been afflicted with an infection ever since being spiked in the second game of the season, probably is lost to the Athletics for several more weeks. He was injured in the same game in which Manager Joe (Tough) of the Red Sox took his thumb.

Ted Olson, the star Dartmouth pitcher, who joined the Boston Red Sox in Chicago, a few days ago, won seventeen out of twenty games in his last two seasons with the Hanover team. He is a member of the Delta, Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Ted weighs 180 and stands six feet two.

Emory Dickson, right hand pitcher, joined Connie Mack's club from Los Angeles, and is a mem- ber of Beta Beta Beta, a fraterni- ty at Washington, and has also been a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha frat as did Pete D'Amico, a six footer, weighs 175 pounds.

Larry Rosenthal, the outfield- er purchased by the White Sox from St. Paul, has never played with any pro team except the Saints, joining that club in 1933. A left hand batter and thrower, Rosenthal batted .284 in '33, .283 in '34, .302 in '35 and .326 in 1936. He led the American As- sociation outfielders with .408 put outs in 1935.

What pitcher, however, has pitched ball in the American League

Many players as well as umpires declare it is Jack Wilson, of the Boston Red Sox with Bob Grove, nine runs. Buck Newsum and John Allen as the runners-up.
