THE GOLDEN EAGLE
THIS IS A VERY WISE BIRD AT SECURING FOOD. THE STRONG SHELL OF THE COMMON TORTOISE DOES NOT PROTECT IT AGAINST THIS BIRD—THE EAGLE PICKS UP THE TORTOISE IN ITS CLAWS AND DROPS IT ON ROCKS FROM A GREAT ALTITUDE, SHATTERING THE SHELL.

THE COMMON TORTOISE
IS VERY SLOW IN MOTION, FOR IT NEEDS NO SPEED TO PROTECT ITSELF. ITS ARMORED SHELL IS ITS PROTECTION. VERY FEW ENEMIES CAN PENETRATE ITS SHELL.

SUPERSTITIOUS BELIEFS

PARAGRAPHS

Definition.
Peace—The period during which the licked nation prepares to get even.—Buffalo News.

He Is.
A highbrow is one who pretends to know whether the dancer is interpreting a moonbeam or a cow annoyed by hornets.—U. S. S. Reina Mercedes Galleon.

The Ladies, God Bless 'Em
Nobody would mind giving women even more rights if they'd give up a few privileges.—William Feather Magazine.

Note on Liars.
People don't hate a chronic liar. Once his reputation is established, they get indifferent because they never get fooled.—Buffalo Evening News.

Free Advice.
A little yellow dog will chase anything that runs. It is something to remember when people have you scared.—Buffalo News.

Quail.
Now that folks who possess "valuable" pitch have been discovered by radio programs, we wonder if the keynotes in the conventions have been chosen too early.—Rochester Times Union.

Evidently.
Squirrels in Oklahoma are said to be biting people, from which it may be inferred that owing to the frost there the people have gone nuts.—Pasadena Post.

Political Note.
Roosevelt believes that high prices promote prosperity—sound old Republican doctrine. So the two teams will play this year's game defending each other's goal.—New Yorker.

All That's Necessary.
Both Paragons and Holivians have kicked out the governments which conducted the war between them. All they need to do is to repudiate the debts and bring back the dead.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

Jest For Fun

Unconstitutional.
Because he had been naughty Willie's mother had decided that he should not go to the movies to see the usual Saturday afternoon Western thriller. Willie, however, had been studying current events at school and did not intend to give up without a struggle. "You have no constitutional right to do this mother," he said. "Why not?" "Because you are exercising rule without consent of the governed."—

They're Safe
Did you ever stop to think that people who never trust can't be swindled?—Florida Times Union.

Takes Brains
Lady: Oh, I do like our new summer home, always something home to you something you never saw before. "Sighing." Yes, I know. Our landlady is like that.—Humorist.

Unemployed
A growing boy in an English town had obtained a small job—his first—and was looking forward to the amount of work he did. "I get up at half past five and have my breakfast," he said. "Any one else get up, too?" he was asked. "Oh, yes, mother. She gets me breakfast and then she gets dad's at half past six." "And your dinner?" "Oh, mother gets that, too, and then she gets father's." "Has she the afternoon to herself?" "Oh, no! She cleans up, looks after the children, and gets tea for dad and me when we come home. Then we get our smoke, and then we get to bed." "And your mother?" "Well, she does a bit of sewing then, when all is cleaned up after tea." "What wages do you get?" "Oh, I get ten bob, and dad gets thirty-five." "And your mother?" "Mother? Oh, she don't get no wages. She don't do no work."

Wife. How dare you deny that you had been drinking last night? Here you are in bed with your shoes and pants on! "Hullo. But you see, my dear, lately I have become addicted to walking in my sleep and I thought it best to be bed prepared."

That's Why
"Pardon me," said the hotel clerk. "Would you mind telling me your name?" "My name?" snorted the new guest. "Can't you see where I signed the register?" "Yes, it was the reply, "that's what aroused my curiosity."

New Owner
He took her hand in his and gazed proudly at the engagement ring he had placed on her finger only three days before. "Did your friends admire it?" he inquired, tenderly. "They did more than that," she replied. "Two of them recognized it!"—Christian Science Monitor.

A Thought.
We may be wrong, but have also thought that the chances of a law being declared unconstitutional were in proportion to the number of lawyers among the lawmakers.—Detroit News.
