

VOWS ARE SPOKEN AT EASTERN RITES

Roger Holler And Bride
Sail For Bermuda
After Wedding

A simple morning ceremony of interest to Birmingham folk, was performed at St. Bartholomew's Church in New York City last Thursday morning, when Jean Boyd Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman A. Hill of Greenmead, Northville, and Roger William Holler, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Holler of Berwyn road, spoke their nuptial vows. The Rev. Lynde Eliot May was the officiating clergyman.

The bride was simply gowned in a white chiffon frock, with which she wore a small white straw hat. Her flowers were white orchids sprayed with daisies. Miss Delphia Hill, who was her sister's only attendant, chose light blue lace for her gown, and a small daisied hat. She carried orchids. William E. Holler attended his brother as best man.

Following a wedding breakfast at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Holler left for Bermuda. On their return they will reside temporarily in Hanover, N. H.

Sandwich Spreads

Life in the summer can be made very pleasant with a tall glass of cold tea and a dainty sandwich. Cut them thin, remove crusts and use colorful and seasonal fillings. Sandwiches will remain fresh and moist if wrapped in all paper and placed in a container with tight cover. Keep in the refrigerator until needed.

SANDWICH FILLINGS

Celery Sandwich Filling
To one cup mayonnaise, add 1-2 cup chopped celery. Spread between buttered bread and insert a lettuce leaf. Green pepper or equal parts of green pepper and pimento may be used instead of celery. Grated raw carrots are good, too.

Piquant Sandwich Filling
To one cup mayonnaise, add 1-4 cup chow chow or India relish, 1-4 cup chili sauce, 1-4 cup chopped celery, 2 tablespoons chopped pimento. Spread on one layer of scantily buttered white bread, cover with shredded lettuce and then press on a slice of graham bread.

Cheese Filling
Blend 1 cream cheese with 2 tablespoons orange juice, 1-2 tea-

MATRON HONORED AT MANY AFFAIRS

Mrs. Minor Is Entertained
Widely Before Leaving
For Minneapolis

Prior to her departure on July 31 for Minneapolis, where the family will reside, Mrs. Lancelot C. Minor of Greenwood avenue has been the honor guest at many affairs given by numerous friends as tributes to her popularity.

Mrs. Eleanor Ford of Southfield road will be hostess at luncheon Saturday at Devon Gables. Tuesday, Mrs. Edward M. Smith, formerly of Barbour Terrace, now of Detroit, will entertain at tea for Mrs. Minor and Mrs. Dean Coffin of Royal Oak.

Last Thursday, Mrs. John H. Gordon was hostess at a luncheon at Orchard Lake Country Club honoring Mrs. Minor. Earlier in the week, Mrs. Minor's mother, Mrs. Clarence Gail, and Mrs. Donald T. Stanton entertained at tea for 100 guests at the latter's home on Michigan drive. Mrs. L. S. Trowbridge was also hostess at a luncheon at her home in the Hills, for Mrs. Minor.

spoon grated orange rind, salt and 1/2 cup grated pecans or peanuts. Spread between slices of Boston brown bread.

Ribbon Sandwiches

Cut bread in thin slices, spread with softened butter and put together in 6 tiers, spreading each layer with a different filling. Cream cheese for the first, minced lamb for the second, mint jelly for the third, chopped hard boiled eggs for the fourth, and currant jelly for the fifth; or you may use chicken, chopped nuts, olives, crisped bacon, grated cheese and a red jelly. Press together well, and wrap in cheesecloth. When ready to use slice down in quarter-inch slices.

Bread and Butter Sandwiches. Dainty bread and butter sandwiches are always in good taste upon any occasion. They may be shaped in any of the fancy shapes. Plain sweet butter is hardly to be surpassed, but colored and flavored butters lend variety and are quite fastidious. To color add a few drops of vegetable color to creamed butter, working it in smoothly.

Lemon butter is made by creaming 1-4 cup butter with 1-2 teaspoon salt, dash of cayenne, 1 tablespoon lemon juice and 1-2 teaspoon grated rind.

For red butter put 1 pimento through a sieve and blend with 1-3 cup of butter.

Spunach juice or olives pounded to a paste will make green butter.

Liverwort Sandwiches
1-4 cup sliced pickle.
1 small onion.
1-2 cup liverwort.
Few drops lemon juice.
3 tablespoons mayonnaise.
Pick the pickles and onion through the food chopper. Work the liverwort into a paste and add the pickles, onion, lemon juice and mayonnaise. Spread thickly between slices of rye bread. Serve beer and a green salad with these sandwiches.

Cucumber and Tongue Sandwiches
1-2 cup chopped cucumber.
1-2 teaspoon onion juice.
1 tablespoon minced green pepper.
1-2 cup minced cold boiled tongue.
Mayonnaise.
Mix all ingredients and add enough mayonnaise to moisten. Spread between thin slices of white bread.

Lily Sandwiches
Remove crusts from bread and cut in thin slices. (For all rolled sandwiches use a close textured bread.) Lay on a dampened cloth, spread with cream cheese softened with a little cream. Fold over to make a corncup; press lightly so that the edges hold together. In the opening place a small strip of yellow cheese to represent the stamen.

Ham Sandwich Filling
To 1 cup ground ham add 1-4 cup chopped sweet pickles, 1-4 cup chopped celery and mayonnaise or tomato catsup to spread. Add salt and pepper to taste. From 1 to 3 hard boiled eggs may be added.

Net Bread Sandwiches
Cut net bread in butter lightly and put 3 slices together with cream cheese between the first layer and raspberry jam between the second.

Open Sandwiches
Cut rye bread in round pieces and spread with butter and anchovy paste. Place a thin slice of tomato on top and cover with a layer of mayonnaise. Sprinkle with paprika.

Apple Sandwich
Select a large red apple, wash and core but do not peel. With a cookie cutter cut thinly sliced rings into round pieces of the apple. Blend some paprika butter with sufficient honey to make it spread easily. Spread the bread and slice the apple. Put together sandwich fashion.
