Pierce will entertain at their Metamora home. Events Saturday will begin at 8 a. m. with road work with the hounds, followed by a ride through the countryside at 9 a. m. There will be luncheon at the club at 1 p. m., and at 2:30, motor cars will convey guests on a tour of stock farms in the Metamora District. The Board of Governors of Metamora Hunt will be hosts at tea at the club at 5 p. m., and there will be dinner at 8 at the club. A ride through the countryside at 9 a. m. Sunday opens the program for the day. Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Higbie will be hosts for cocktails at their Metamora Farm, at noon, followed by dinner at the club at 1:30 p. m., and dinner at 8 p. m. at the club.

The week-end will conclude with cocktails at the Metamora Farm of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Bredin at 5:30 p. m., and dinner at 8 p. m. at the club. C. George Shepherd is chairman of the entertainment committee and B. E. Hopper is chairman of the stable committee.

Wins Degree

MARY VIRGINIA MOORE

Virginia Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Moore of Red Oaks, was graduated from Seton Hill College Monday evening. Miss Moore received the Bachelor of Arts degree with major credit completed in sociology and minor credits in English and music. As a senior, Miss Moore was treasurer of the music club, and head of the circulation department of the "Setonian." She holds membership in the Wetaerklarks, the German Club, the Literary Club and the Circle Lisieux. In January of this year Miss Moore was a Seton Hill delegate to the National Peace Conference on the Cause and Cure of War which was held in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore who attended the commencement, were hosts at a dinner for Miss Moore's classmates at the Fort Ligonier Hotel, Friday evening.

Mrs. Walter Roger Flaunery of Bloomfield Hills is also at Seton Hill for the commencement season with her daughter, Harriet Flaunery, a member of the freshman class.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tyson of Williamsburg road left Monday on a motor trip to Cleveland. They will return Friday.

CALENDAR FILLED FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Barbara Jackson Widely Feted As Wedding Day Draws Near

Prenuptial affairs are rapidly filling the calendar for one of Birmingham's busiest bride-elects, Miss Barbara L. Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Jackson of Glenhurst drive, who will become the bride of Thomas E. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson of Goodhue road, Saturday June 27. Miss Jackson and Mr. Wilson will speak their vows at the hour of luncheon in the afternoon at Christ Church Cranbrook, with the Rev. W. Hamilton Aulbach, assistant rector, officiating. Between now and her wedding day, Miss Jackson will be widely feted in various ways. This week started the social ball in motion. Mrs. Draper Allen entertained Tuesday evening at the club in her home on Westwood drive.

Mrs. David Golden Murray of Pilgrim road and her daughter, Mrs. Lorne T. McDonald of Bloomfield court were joint hostesses Tuesday afternoon at a luncheon and hosiery shower at Orchard Lake Country Club. Besides Miss Jackson, the guests were Miss Mary Louise Hill, Miss Barbara Fitch, Mrs. C. K. Latham, Miss Doris Ott, Mrs. Joseph Hinshaw, Mrs. Donald D. James, and Mrs. Lee E. Joslyn, Jr.

Following the luncheon, delegates will give an illustrated talk on "Michigan Birds" by Walter P. Nickell of the Cranbrook Institute of Science. Another event of social interest on Monday's program will be a tea on the terrace at Kingswood at 4:30 p. m. under the chairmanship of Mrs. Walter G. Morley. The committee assisting Mrs. Morley will consist of Mrs. John Watling, Mrs. Allen Zacharias, Mrs. Alfred R. Glaney, Mrs. Zolner Dowling, and Mrs. Frank Blair.

A banquet at Oakland Hills Country club at 7 p. m. will be a highlight of the opening day, with Mrs. John Graham as chairman of hostesses. W. J. Cameron of Dearborn will be the principal speaker. There will be also a musical program by the General Motors Track Male chorus, under the direction of Vernon B. Kellett of Cranbrook. Tuesday's events will open with a business session at 10 a. m. in the Greek Theater. At noon there will be a box luncheon followed by a pilgrimage to some of the lovely gardens in the Hills. Mrs. John T. Shaw will be in charge of arrangements among those opening their grounds to the delegates and guests will be Mrs. William C. Lechen, Mrs. J. H. Muzzy, Mrs. Walter G. Morley, Mrs. John Watling, Mrs. Richard Cranbrook, Mrs. S. V. Norton, Mrs. Frederick J. Robinson, Mrs. Alfred R. Glaney, Mrs. William Parvess, Mrs. Ralph L. Polk, Jr., and Mrs. Clarence Booth.
