Bailey Appoints Committees To Serve For Six Months Period

At the Tuesday noon luncheon of the Birmingham Exchange Club, the executive committee, presided by Manley R. Bailey appointed standing committees to serve during the period from July 1, to January 1, 1937, although there will be no meetings of the Exchange Club in July and August.

James Traces Bank Structure

Legislation of 1933, superceding previous legislation. In addition to amending provisions of the act at various points, the act made provision for a slightly revised Federal Reserve Board. Mr. James said that after passage of that act, Congress gave the bankers a breathing spell, but in January, 1935, the House and Senate finance committees held hearings on the proposed new banking law, as known as the Banking Act of 1935. This is the law under which the banking institutions of the country are now operating.

Desmonds Are Given Cold Shoulder By Frozen Fish

This is the story of a Birmingham fish that ran like it! The small goldfish of the Vance L. Desmond home, 733 Willis street, were placed last summer in a do-it-yourself pond. The pond was made of mounds, chub, and goldfish. The fish lived and prospered in the pond.

Rosevears Attend Reserve Officers' Nat'l Convention

Col and Mrs. Wm. B. Rosevear, of Rosevear Drive, are leaving today by motor for New York City and Springfield, Massachusetts, to attend the National Convention of the Reserve Officers' Association in the latter city. Rosevear has been endorsed by the Michigan Department of the Association for the National Presidency of the organization. The election of which officer takes place June 22 at the Convention.

Not So Bad

An old farmer was maddic regarding the ravages of the flood. "Hiram, your pigs are all washed down the creek," a neighbor told him sympathetically. "How about Phlatery's pigs?" asked the farmer. "They're gone, too." "Yes." "Humph!" ejaculated the farmer, cheering up. "Ain't as bad as I thought!"

"I-Spunky Jones" by Marjorie Elaine Porter

I went through it all in a sort of daze—remember Linda with her arms around me, her face a cloud of veil floating around her—remember the words "I'll be with you" and the sound of my voice promising "I do." Then I seemed to be drifting around for days, and the sound of my voice promising "I do." Nothing is very clear, until just before Linda and I started on our honeymoon. When we went in to say "Goodbye" to our folks. They were in her Dad's study upstairs, and we breezed in, all in a rush to be off.

NEARLY $300,000 BONUS TO VETS

(Continued from Page One) to give me another $100 and see what happens to that." Edward Haxall, 627 Purdy Street, served overseas with the 10th Medical Corps, Mrs. Haxall stated. "We are going to put all the money into our new home at 125 Biddle street. Of course, we are very happy to have the money. It's a wonderful thing and come at an appropriate time."
