VOWS ARE SPOKEN AT CHURCH RITES

Valerie Depew Becomes Bride At Ceremony In Grosse Pointe

A wedding of outstanding interest in Bloomfield Hills as well as in Grosse Pointe, was solemnized Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the Grosse Pointe Memorial church, when Miss Valerie Depew, daughter of Mrs. William W. Mills, became the bride of Washburn Wright, son of Mrs. Hamilton Wright of New York and Washington.

Wearing robes of heavy white satin and historic veil of rose-pointe lace, Miss Depew, advanced to the altar on the arm of Mr. Mills. Mrs. Royal Whitman, first vice-president; Mrs. W. W. Newkirk, worth of Battle Creek, second vice-president; Mrs. Murgie Baker, East Lansing, recording secretary; and Miss Marie L. Anderson of Grosse Pointe Park, treasurer.

The board of directors of the division is composed of the officers, the president of each of the 16 units in the division, and the chairman of standing committees.

All Units Represented
According to the report of the registration committee, headed by Mrs. Frank L. Kingensmith, 246 delegates registered when the convention opened Monday at Kingswood. This number represented all of the 16 units included in the division. These are Battle Creek, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Dearborn, Detroit, Grosse Pointe, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Mt. Clemens, Port Huron, Pontiac, Saginaw, Rochester, and Plymouth and Northville. Later in the day, the state Association, The Northville unit was organized only one month ago, by Mrs. William McMillan of Birmingham.

Highlights of Monday's sessions included an address by the retiring president, John W. Hutchinson of Saginaw, at the morning session, and a talk on Michigan illustrated with Walter P. Nickell of the Cranbrook Institute of Science, in the afternoon.

The Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, assistant rector of Christ Church Cranbrook, delivered the invocation at the luncheon Monday. The afternoon program was followed by tours through Cranbrook and Kingswood schools, through Christ Church Cranbrook, the Academy of Art and the Institute of Science, during which there was a carillon recital by William Hall Minor, bellringer. Later tea was served on the terrace of the Art Academy.

Banquet Closes Day
Miss Sarah Sly was chairman of the hospitality committee, assisted by Mrs. Kingensmith and Mrs. W. D. Thompson. Mrs. Frank W. Shue and Mrs. Walter G. Morley were in charge of arrangements for the tea, and dining as guests were Mrs. Frank E. Blair, Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, Mrs. Allen Zacharias, Mrs. Zeller Dowling and Mrs. John W. Walling.

The closing event on Monday's program was a banquet at Oakbrook Country Club. Mrs. W. J. Cameron of Dearborn was the principal speaker, and groups of chorale artists were sung by the General Motors Truck Male Chorus under the direction of Vernon B. Kellett.

Tuesday's program opened with a breakfast at Kingswood followed by a business session and election of officers in the Greek Theater, where there was also a box luncheon at noon. A pilgrimage to Bloomfield Hills gardens occupied the afternoon. Members of the unit were stationed in the various gardens opened to guests as hostesses.

Garden Hostesses
Mrs. Donald D. Lutz received visitors to the garden of Mrs. Richard G. English. In the garden of Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, Mrs. George T. Nickerson was hostess, and Mrs. John Walling presided in the garden of Mrs. S. V. Norton. Mrs. H. A. O'Dell assisted in the garden of Mrs. R. L. Polk, Jr.

Useful Gifts for Father!

Sunday is Father's Day . . . Make him happy with a well-chosen selection of gifts . . . things that he really likes, and will use. Below you'll see a few suggestions, and you'll see more if you come down to our store and look around.

Wash Slacks

A nice selection of cloths and weaves in fancy stripes and all over checks. Nicely tailored and correctly styled. Many with pleated fronts. Will withstand laundering due to their being pre-shrunk.

$1.75 up

A Shirt Is Always Tops!
ARROW SHIRTS $1.95 to $2.50

See the ever popular Trump, which has been a leader in shirts for years. Then there is the Arrow. A shirt which is cut to fit the body, narrow at the hips to insure a snug fit. Ideal for collar. Arched with the West Point fitted look. All in plain colors and patterns.

MARLBORO SHIRTS $1.95

The new "air-cooled" shirt which has just arrived for the summer season. A new weave which admits the air to get through for summer comfort. In yellow, blue, gray and white, with tubular collar.

NOVELTY SHIRTS $1.65 up

The largest selection of fancy shirts in town. Stripes, plaids, plain colors and fancy weaves in conservative shades and the popular designs. Many feature the Duke of Kent collar which is a style leader. Other collar styles to suit every taste.

TIES FOR DAD

Silk Dress Ties
65c to $1.00

Beautiful patterns in stripes and checks. Fine quality, full cut, well-finished. A tie to match every shirt.

Wash Ties
35c—3 for $1.00

The ideal tie to wear with light-colored light-weight suits. A large selection in the popular color and patterns of the day. Laundering keeps them fresh and neat.

FLANNEL SLACKS

Summer favorite dress pants. In gray, tan and white. Plain color and fancy checks. Beautifully styled and made; they will give a maximum of service. Durable and easy to care for.

$3.95 to $5.25

Perhaps Dad would like a couple of pairs of White Ducks for knockabout wear. We have them in every size at $1.95.

POLO SHIRTS 75c to $1.50

Just the thing for golf and general sports wear. A fine selection of materials. Terry, 4-6ths, strong knits and relaxed in white, pastels and fancy patterns. Several styles, all sizes.

PAJAMAS $1.50 up

By Glover and Artistic in a large selection of colors and styles. Slip over and cut styles, in plain colors and patterns. You'll surely find just what Dad will like.

Rain Jacket $1.00

Here's something that Dad will surely appreciate—and it is something he hasn't ever had. A fine, lightweight Gum Rubber Jacket which he can slip on over his golf or sports toots to protect him from the rain. So thin that it can be rolled up into a tiny package which can be put in a golf bag pocket or car compartment.

BEACH ROBES $2.95

Of colorful Terry Cloth in plain colors, with contrasting trim and bright stripes. So absorbent that it will soak up the water from a swim or bath. A dandy, useful robe for all-weather use.

Swim Trunks

Have Dad put aside his old-fashioned swimming suit and slip into the new Swim Trunks which are now the popular attire for swimming. We have them in the latest styles, and in a number of popular colors. All built as only Jantzen and Rugby can build them. For comfort and smart appearance.
