As You Desire It - in Michigan

UNDOUBTEDLY you have your own ideas as to what makes a perfect vacation. You, and you alone, know exactly what you want; and the State of Michigan offers almost every facility for a vacation just as you desire it.

Few states can match Michigan's attractions for those interested in water sports. Here are some of the finest trout streams that ever delighted the modern Izaak Walton. Here is an unsurpassed variety of lakes—some as small and calm as mill-ponds, others that are great areas flashing, sea-like, in the sun. You can choose as you will for swimming, motor boating, fishing, canoeing, or sailing.

For motor touring, Michigan—home of the automobile—offers some of America's finest roads, interesting highways that wind through scenes of unspoiled natural beauty, revealing vistas of distant water, picturesque sand dunes and primeval forests.

Resorts, large and small; tourists' camps; splendid golf courses and tennis courts; fine lake liners requiring no passport; or visas; good inns and hotels; camping sites of every description—all these, within the State of Michigan, stand ready to contribute their share to your ideal holiday.

We urge you to consider Michigan for your own vacation. And let your friends in other states know what a playground awaits them here. You will be doing them a favor—and promoting good will for your native State.

As our part in such promotion, this series of advertisements is being published in newspapers throughout the State by a Michigan organization that prospers only as the other citizens of Michigan prosper.

By MINNIE HUNT SALTZER

 The property at the south west corner of W. Brown and Pierce Sts. was owned by Mrs. E. L. Jennings, whose first husband's name was Randall. Her children by her first marriage were Henry and Lucy R. Cowles.

Mrs. Saltzer

Lucius and Lucy were twins. After Mrs. Randall became Mrs. E. L. Jennings, her home was on the north side of W. Maple Ave. near Bates St. and her daughter Lucy (Mrs. E. D. Jones) became the owner of the Brown St. property. Mrs. Cowles had three sons, Fred, Clarence and Charles. Clarence passed away about a year ago. When Charles was about fourteen years old, Mrs. Cowles moved to Saginaw and lived there until her death. Mrs. Florence Gilles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Major Jones owned the Cowles property next and later it was sold to Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Baldock. Mrs. Baldock was formerly Miss Maud Leet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Leet of W. Maple Rd. near Franklin Rd.

The Baldocks had two sons. The eldest, Lionel Hudson, passed away in Oct., 1911. The second son, Lowe Hudson, lives with his parents on a farm near Columbus, Mich.

The frame house at the south east corner of W. Brown St. and Henrietta St. was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tlex Hutchinson. Mrs. Hutchinson was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. McLaughlin, whose home was on the south west corner of Pierce and Merrill Sts. The McLaughlin house was destroyed by fire in the early 80's. I have previously written about Mrs. Elizabeth McLaughlin who was Mrs. Alex Hutchinson's sister. They were relatives of the former senator Joseph McLaughlin, whose home was on the north side of East Boston Blvd. near Woodward Avenue in Detroit, Mich.

I believe there were five daughters and one son in the Hutchinson family. Elizabeth, so named for her aunt, Elizabeth Johnson, Mrs. Sarah N. Baker, who had two sons, the eldest of whom is Stewart Baker, Mrs. Mary H. Johnson, whom I believe was killed in an accident in front of the old Wild farm house on N. Woodward about a block and a half north of Oak St. The remaining three Hutchinson children were Josephine, Eva, and Robert.

Josephine and Eva were dress makers for a long time. After the Hutchinson farm land and home were sold the "Hutchinson Girls" and brother Robert lived on Hamilton Avenue. I believe that Mrs. Jack Baldwin made her home with them at this time.

Robert and his father were stone masons and Mr. George McQuater, father of Mr. Edward McQuater and Mrs. J. L. Campbell, was their business associate and many of the foundations of the older Birmingham houses of today were the work of these men. Mr. and Mrs. Edward McQuater are the parents of Norman McQuater and Mrs. Thelma Burkman.

In earlier days all of the property south of Mrs. E. L. Jennings' line to Willow Ave. thence to Bates St. and north to the north side of the present Frank St. between Pierce St. and Bates St. belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hutchinson, except about three acres on the west side of Pierce St. which was owned by H. Barnum, father of Mrs. Win. Bruce and her sister, Mrs. Harrison Benedict. Later Mr. Hutchinson became the owner of this also. At that time Lincoln Ave. was called Willow Ave.

It was in this big field that the Ward and Cowles children, Archie, Hatch, Elmer Perry, Ross Hutchinson, and I used to fly kites that we had taken many pains to make and one of the trees, which provided shade for us, is still standing on the lawn of one of the homes on the west side of Henrietta St. In those days Henrietta St. was W. Brown St. and the west line of the Hutchinson lawn was the east line of the Goodell property.

The house that stands at the south west corner of Henrietta St. and W. Brown St. later became the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. A. Ward. Mr. Ward traveled for the Peck Wall Paper Co. and designed several beautiful patterns for the wall paper. He later built a house at the south east corner of W. Brown and Bates St. and used several of the wall paper cylinders in the mantle over the fireplace. Mr. and Mrs. Ward sold their former home to Mr. Wm. Bruce who remodeled the house and rents it.

Mr. Adcock and family lived in this house at one time. His eldest son was married and he also had a son Joseph and a daughter Eva. Rev. and Mrs. Eugene C. Allen occupied the Bruce house in 1898. Rev. Allen was the pastor of the First Methodist Church.

The Ward children were Laurence S. Estella May (Mrs. John H. Ruckman), Morgia Belle, (Mrs. David Johnson), Thomas Albert, Lucy Pearl (Mrs. A. H. Hendrick), and Dr. Earle LeGrand Ward. Laurence, Belle and Albert have passed away. Dr. Ward is a surgeon in the Santa Fe Hospital, New Mexico. He has two daughters. There is a memorial window in the First Pres. Church in honor of Mrs. Belle Ward Johnson. Estella's husband is a Patent Atty in Minneapolis, Minn. Their son, Ward Ruckman, is a journalist, and his wife, Mrs. Eva Ruckman, is a popular artist. Mr. and Mrs. Ward Ruckman live in New Orleans, La., and are the parents of two daughters. Lucy lives near Silverwood, Mich., and has a daughter, Morgia Belle Hendrick, and a son, Ward.

Rev. Eugene C. Allen is the son of Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Allen. His wife was the former Miss Minnie McKean, of Pontiac. His father the late Rev. C. J. Allen, was prominent in the Methodist Episcopal Church work and was a captain in the Civil War. His twin brother was the Rev. Clarence E. Allen. The Eugene Allen children are Mrs. Ruth Vliet, of Jackson, and also a son, whose name I do not recall. A daughter Mary died many years ago. Mrs. Edward McQuater's maiden name was Miss Lillian Reynolds. She is the sister of the late Mrs. Clara Baker, of California, and the mother of Harry and Ray Griffin, by a former marriage. Mrs. Ella McQuater Campbell was the wife of the late Dr. J. L. Campbell, who was one of Birmingham's leading physicians. Dr. Campbell was the brother of Mrs. Maude Hilly Stroup and the late Dr. Floyd Campbell, by a former marriage.

FHL Office Here On Home Financing

B. F. Burtless, secretary and treasurer of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis, credit reservoir for member savings and loan associations in Michigan and Indiana, sixth district of the Federal Home Loan Bank System, is in Birmingham and vicinity this week, making a survey of home financing conditions and residential construction activities.

A shortage of houses, rising rentals, and a marked upward trend in residential construction and purchases in the period of recovery, demands an intensive study of existing conditions on that the borrowing needs of the community can be met adequately, Bank officials believe.

Mr. Burtless will visit: Dearborn, Wayne, Royal Oak, Northville, Monroe, Wyandotte, and Plymouth in his study of home financing conditions.

NRS MAY EMPLOYMENT TOTAL SHOWS INCREASE

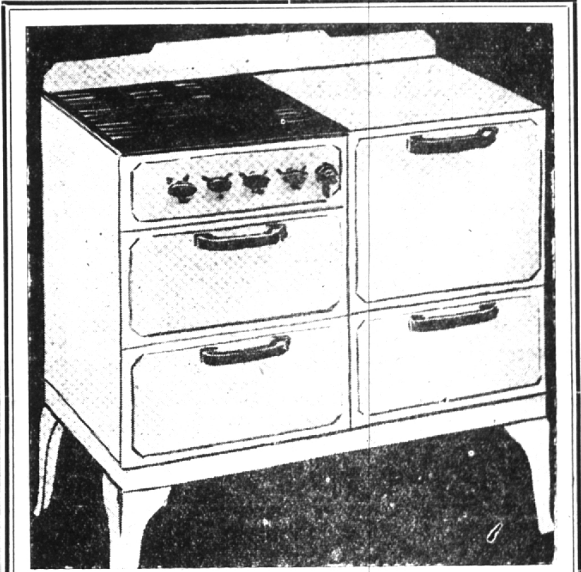

During May more jobs were given Michigan men and women in private industry and retail contracting through the National Industrial Recovery Act than in any other month this year. Michigan State Re-employment month total, announced today, comparing May with April, tallied more than 50 percent more in private jobs were available in the field at the same time a slight decline in work relief jobs at similar wages was noted.
