

First Co-ed—The cheek of that conductor. He glared at me as if I hadn't paid my fare.

Second Co-ed—And what did you do? First Co-ed—I glared right back at it if I had.

New Gas Station Opens On Woodward

The local gas and oil field has a new addition. Mr. Levi, an independent dealer, who has opened a large service station on Woodward near London Street.

MANY DOGS WILL ENTER SHOW HERE

(Continued from Page One) active membership consists of residents of Oakland County. The associate rolls list those who reside elsewhere in Michigan or in some other state.

Two of the finest judges in the country have been engaged for the show. Mr. Alfred DeMont, of Winnesboro, Penna., and Mr. Lewis E. Warden, of New York City, are known throughout the country as fine all-rounders.

Altogether, the facilities for showing and the surrounding locality make Birmingham an ideal city for such an exhibition.

SCOUT ACTIVITIES BUILD CHARACTER

(Continued from Page One) understanding which Sir Robert had hoped to bring about amongst the boys of the world as a movement towards future world peace was launched also with the girls.

Platform Pledges

By RAYMOND PITCAHN National Chairman Sentinels of the Republic America for weeks to come will remain acutely platform-conscious.

The gang spirit amongst girls seems not to survive successfully in adult life. Women have spent generations in the home, isolated, working alone, meeting other women perhaps to gossip with them, but not to work and play together as men do.

The water program in Girl Scouting is carried out largely through troop meetings where three types of activities are included in each properly conducted program—the inspirational when the patriotic or individual strength of character is emphasized through Girl Scout ceremonies.

NUMERICALLY SPEAKING

First Husband—I and my wife are here. Second Husband—My wife and I are here; she is one and I am the other.

Home-spun

Mountainain—Listen, woman, whose wearin' the pants round here, anyhow? His Wife—Joe's wearin' 'em in the paw. You all will have ter stay in th' cabin.
