SHOWER PLANNED FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Day Will Be Honor Guest At Parties Before Wedding

In honor of Miss June Elizabeth Day, who will become the bride of Donald Snow Bell on July 4, Mrs. James E. Bullock of Ravine road will be hostess Saturday at a personal shower and luncheon at her home. The guests will include Mrs. S. O. Wylie Bell and Mrs. Peter K. Boyne of Birmingham, Mrs. Raymond H. Hall, Mrs. Fred H. McGuire, Mrs. DeForest Wheaton Candler, and Miss Carolyn Wells of Detroit, Mrs. Ruth Traudell of Farmington and Mrs. John L. Nelson of Northville.

Another party to be given for the bride-elect, will be a dinner in Detroit Monday evening, at which Miss Wells will be hostess. Miss Day and Miss Anita Gillett of Detroit will leave Wednesday for Glen Lake, the summer home of Miss Day's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Day.

The nuptial rites will be read at the Glen Lake home of Dr. and Mrs. Day at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Wells will be the bride's only attendant, and Dr. E. H. Gandy will be best man for Mr. Bell. The Rev. Dr. Howard Towne of Traverse City will perform the ceremony. Mr. Bell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Wylie Bell of Elm street.

Degrees Make Them 'Bachelors' Of '36

In the upper row, left to right, the graduates are Dorothy Schwarzer, Carolyn S. Salisbury and Elizabeth Ann O'Dell.

Below are Edith Louise Stone and Vivienne Floyd Beardslee. Center, Jane Ellen Peabody.

Fashion Tips

Prints are still very, very good. Practically every well-dressed woman wears several prints in her wardrobe and when the dress happens to be plain it sometimes has printed accessories such as scarfs, belts or bags. Flower patterns are predominant.

As the days get longer, day-time prints have darker backgrounds, excepting for sports.

Printed jackets of linen or silk are quite good over plain colored evening dresses.

In choosing a print, select one with a becoming background and do not choose a large flowered design unless you are tall and slender.

Sharkskin jackets are lovely over dresses of printed linen.

A cunning idea is the new zipper skirt for the woman golfer. If her skirt is annoying by reason of the wind, she zips it down and it becomes narrower, if it is too narrow for a drive, she zips it up a pleat or two and she is more full-ness.

A slim figure is the thing, and if one hasn't one, the next best thing is a good corset.

RITE TO BE READ IN HILLS CHURCH

Barbara Jackson To Become Bride At Service In Cranbrook

At the hour of 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, in Christ Church Cranbrook, Miss Barbara Lee Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Jackson of Glenhurst drive, and Thomas Erwin Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wilson of Goodhue road, will speak their nuptial vows. The Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, assistant rector, will officiate.

Miss Jackson will be attended by Miss Yvonne Scott as maid of honor, and her bridesmaids will be Lucille Wilson, sister of the bridegroom; Mary Louise Hills, Barbara Fitch, Janet Bragaw, Betsy O'Dell and Betty Klingensmith. High Effort of Sumner, N. J., will assist Mr. Wilson as best man. Seating the guests will be Curtis Matthews, James B. Bragaw, and Joseph Hinshaw, all of Bloomfield Hills, and from out-of-town, Frederick S. Beebe of Utica, N. Y., Edward Skillin of Wilmette, Ill., and Halsey B. Loder of Brookline, Mass.

Following the ceremony, there will be a reception at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Pre-nuptial parties honoring Miss Jackson have filled the days for several weeks. Monday, Mr. Wilson and Lucille entertained jointly at a luncheon and then shower at Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Miss Fitch and Miss Hills entertained together Wednesday evening, at dinner at the Detroit Athletic Club, and Miss O'Dell will be hostess at breakfast today at Forest Lake Country club.

This evening, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will give the rehearsal dinner at their home. Miss Scott will be hostess at the spinster dinner Friday evening, and the bachelor dinner will be given the same evening at Bloomfield Open Hunt. Mr. Wilson has invited the bridal party to be guests at luncheon today at Forest Lake Country club.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Wells and their daughter, Patricia, of Michigan drive, have returned from Cleveland, where they spent the week-end, accompanied by Mr. Wells' mother, Mrs. Fannie Wells, who will remain for a visit. Mrs. Wells and Patricia also were guests in Gander, O., earlier in the week and were joined in Cleveland Friday by Mr. Wells.

Marriage Made Known

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Stapley of Washtenaw avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Jane Christine Stapley, to Forester Akkeley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Akkeley of Pleasant street. The ceremony was performed Feb. 21, 1936, in Indiana. Mrs. Akkeley is one of triplets, the others being Ruth and Charles. The bride is a graduate of Baldwin High School in the class of January 1935.
