STAR DUST Movie Radio

By MARJORIE ELAINE PORTER
With remarkable ease and realism, young girls of the modern era...

The winning group, which presented scene two, included Patty Shuell, Marjorie Booth, Betty Paterson, Carol Smith, Joan Donaldson and Catherine Wallace...

Now let's Harold Lloyd who wants to make pictures in color. He has been making experiments on his own book for the last two years...

These radio programs of Bing Crosby's are rapidly becoming one of the best of the broadcast...

When you see "The Great Zig-zag" (and of course you'll see it!) you'll hear "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody" beautifully sung...

The youngsters in Hal Rosson's "Our Girl" started on a personal appearance tour a while ago...

As if there hadn't been enough trouble over Mae West's latest, "The Chained Affair" the Chicago censor is objecting to it now...

Another picture that you'll want to see is "I Married a Doctor" which you'll recognize as a splendid Lewis' great book...

Pat O'Brien have the lead, and do exceedingly well by them. However, here a word of warning to young, unmarried doctors...

Staging a come-back in pictures was rather a hard thing for Dolores Costello Barrmore to do...

ODDS AND ENDS... When people in New York asked Benita Hilly she was going to fly back to Hollywood...

Eddie Cantor's new radio contract calls for something like $15,000 a week...

For as little as 25 cents you may want to see CLASSIFIED AD in the columns of The Eccentric...

'Little Women' Given Fine Performance By Children

By MARJORIE ELAINE PORTER

With remarkable ease and realism, young girls of the modern era slipped into the hardships of Civil War times in a dramatization of "Little Women" by Louisa May Alcott...

The story was presented in a series of five scenes, each enacted by a different group of young girls...

The winning group, which presented scene two, included Patty Shuell, Marjorie Booth, Betty Paterson, Carol Smith, Joan Donaldson and Catherine Wallace...

Now let's Harold Lloyd who wants to make pictures in color. He has been making experiments on his own book for the last two years...
