

MUSICAL PROGRAM PLANNED FOR CLUB

Maud Curry, Mrs. Fossenkemper To Be Soloist For Business Groups

A musical program combining vocal, violin and piano selections will be presented this evening to members of the Birmingham Business Women's Club following a dinner meeting at the Community House. Miss Maud Curry will sing a group of songs, Mrs. M. A. Fossenkemper will play several violin solos, and A. Stanley Rosso will be the accompanist.

Miss Curry's numbers will include "Under the Greenwood Tree" by Carl Busch, "Hark, Hark, The Lark" by Franz Schubert, "March Winds" by Marjory Meade, and "When Irish Eyes are Smiling" by Ernest Ball. Mrs. Fossenkemper will offer two groups of violin solos. In the first will be "Arioso" by Bach, "Rondella" by Kreisler, and "At Dawning" by Cadman. The second group will include Rimsky-Korsakov-Kreisler's "Chanson Indoue," and "Souvenir de Lubek" by Riecker.

Two selections will be sung by Miss Curry with violin obligato by Mrs. Fossenkemper, and accompaniment by Mr. Rosso. They will be "Fiddle and I" by Arthur Goodeve, and "By the Waters of Minnetonka" by Thurlow Leurance.

Plans Made To Entertain Former Resident As Guest

Friends of Mrs. Russell Lewis Are Hosts At Many Affairs

Mrs. Russell Lewis of Highland Park, Ill., whom many will remember as a former resident of Birmingham and a member of the Village Players, is being extensively entertained as a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Butler Wiley of North Glenhurst drive.

Mrs. E. M. Vehmeyer of Puritan road was hostess at luncheon Friday to Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Wiley, and Mrs. Kenneth K. Martin. The same evening, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley entertained informally at dinner in honor of Mrs. Lewis and Mr. Lewis, who returned to Chicago the same evening after a brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., of Buckingham road, invited a group of friends for dinner and bridge Saturday evening for Mrs. Lewis, including Mr. and Mrs. Wiley, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Laurance Shaffner. Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley were hosts at an informal buffet supper for their guest, Mrs. Harry J. Myers of Pilgrim road, entertaining a foursome at luncheon Monday, including Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Wiley, and Mrs. Vehmeyer. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth K. Martin of Lone Pine road will be hosts this evening at the musicale ride and dinner dance at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, with Mrs. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Wiley as their guests.

SOCIETY NEWS
To facilitate the handling of society copy on Wednesday, reports of social and club news should be telephoned to the Eccentric office. MONDAY or TUESDAY. The late cash of telephone calls on Wednesday makes the handling of copy increasingly difficult. Late news may be telephoned to 11 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Class Will Open In English Folk Dancing

Birmingham women interested in English folk dances will be given an opportunity to join a class under the direction of Mrs. Fred H. Farrar, at the Community House. The first meeting will be held Wednesday, April 1, from 10 to 11 a. m., and subsequently each Wednesday and Friday morning at the same hour until May 1. Emphasis in class work will be placed on rhythm, Mrs. Farrar said. Mrs. George M. Dwyell will accompany the class. Mrs. Farrar secured much of her knowledge of English folk dancing by a summer as a student of Cyril Sharp in Stratford-on-Avon, England. She was a former instructor of the English Folk Dance Society of Chicago, and instructor of folk dancing at Camp Osoha of the Dunes in Northern Michigan. Mrs. Farrar plans to attend the summer session of the English Folk Dance Society at Amherst College during the coming summer.
