P. T. A. GIVES PLAY TO PAY FOR PIANO

Parents, Teachers and Students to Take Part In Mock Broadcast

"Please Stand By" is the title of a radio play to be presented at the Barnum School Friday evening at 8 p. m. under auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association. Proceeds of the play will be used to clear the debt remaining on the school piano.

As the title implies, the event will be held in a broadcasting studio, with parents, teachers and students taking part as performers. The four principals in the cast will be Mrs. Geraldine Forsythe, Miss Lila McCormick, Miss Lydia Terrill, and Ingwald Wangberg.

A number of entertainers well known to Birmingham audiences will participate. Mrs. Frederick A. Protheroe will sing a group of old-fashioned songs. Mrs. James M. Anderson will offer a dance number, as will Doris Franklin and Jean Hueman, who dance together. Floyd A. Franklin will sing a tenor solo. Frances Allen will be heard in a violin solo, and Mrs. Arthur Peck will play a piano number. A string trio composed of Elizabeth, Raymond and Robert Anderson, children of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, will play a selection. Solos by Bill Charlton on his piano accordion, and selections by a Philippine trio from Pontiac.

Audience Enjoys Musical Journey to Land of Czechs

By MARJORIE ELAINE PORTER

A small but appreciative audience enjoyed a musical excursion to Czechoslovakia, Friday evening at the Community House, when Pavel Pavlik, baritone, and a chorus of young women appeared in a novel repertoire of native airs. The program was sponsored by the Birmingham Musical.

In authentic costumes of gay colors, some lavishly embroidered and studded with brilliants, Mr. Pavlik and his supporting chorus presented a vivid picture of life among a people noted for their love of song and gaiety.

The program combined songs of the Gypsies, Bohemians and Moravians, names more familiar to the world of romance and music than the geographic term, "Czecho-Slovakia." The melodies themselves were not so familiar to the American ear, however nor was the strange tongue in which they were sung. But the program was particularly enjoyable for that reason, because it was out of the beaten path of musical expression.

Songs Of Gypsies.

In a full but sympathetic baritone, Mr. Pavlik dramatically interpreted the emotions of his people through their folk songs. His repertoire was varied. For his opening numbers, he sang two Gypsy songs with a fine verve. Contrasting with these, was a lively, tenderly leading selection from a Philippine trio from Pontiac.

RELIEF PLANS LAID AT RED CROSS TEA

Class In Home Hygiene To Be Held At Community House

An informal tea, arranged to bring those assisting in the recent Red Cross Roll Call in Oakland County, together for an afternoon of chatting and relaxation, Friday at the Community House, developed into a meeting of a different type. Plans were organized for bringing relief to those in the stricken flood areas, and arrangements were also made for organizing local committees and classes to assist with home needs.

The problem of hygiene in the homes was generally discussed, and a committee appointed for the area, including Mrs. Donald McGraw, chairman; Mrs. George T. Hendrie and Mrs. Kate Drumm.

Under auspices of the local chapter, a class in home hygiene and care of the sick, will be conducted each Wednesday morning for three months, beginning April 1, at the Community House at 2:30. Mrs. Ann Hecks, R. N. of National Red Cross headquarters, will be the instructor. Those interests are invited to enroll.

For the tea, which followed the meeting, the table was charmingly arranged with tulips as a floral center, flanked by pale yellow tapers in silver holders. Pouring were Mrs. Roland H. Mann and Mrs. Harry Allen. Mrs. McGraw was in charge of the tea arrangements.

Mrs. Harold H. Corson was hostess to the 40 guests attending, and assisting was Miss Julia Van Arsdell.

County Clubs Will Observe Federation's 30th Birthday

Tribute will be paid to the enduring work of the Birmingham woman as a founder of the Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs, when that body observes its 30th anniversary Friday, April 3, with an all-day program at the Community House. Miss Martha Baldwin, who served as first president of the Federation, was one of the prime movers in plans for its organization, serving as chairman of the organizing committee.

Earliest records of the Federation, dated November 1901, reveal that it was formed at a meeting. Miss Baldwin had been working since April of that year to bring the movement to a focal point. When the Federation was finally launched, it consisted of five charter members: Mrs. George Kimball, Jr., of Pontiac; Mrs. O. W. Dawson of Ferndale; and Mrs. H. K. Ellis of Holly. Mrs. Fred H. Gross of Royal Oak is president.

Highlights of the anniversary program include a luncheon at 12:30, when former presidents, and charter members of clubs organized during the past 30 years ago, will be honored as guests at a special table. Many of the guests will appear in costumes of an earlier day, suggestive of pioneer times in woman's club endeavors. Former presidents eligible to be placed at the guest table include Mrs. W. A. Fox of Rochester, Mrs. Milan Vhet of Clarkston, Miss Kate Leggett of Pontiac.

Clothing Is Sought For Victims Of Flood

A group of Christian Science women will open headquarters Friday at 153 West Maple avenue, to repair clothing, which will be turned over to the Red Cross for victims of the flood areas. Those wishing to contribute articles may take them to headquarters, or telephone a member of the committee. Contributions will be picked up by committee members upon request.

The group includes Mrs. George Rounds, Mrs. Charles Zytman, Mrs. Grace Tucker, Mrs. Ernest Jackson, and Mrs. W. G. Stecker.

Cycle Shows Feeling

In a cycle speaks the various emotional qualities of Mr. Pavlik's voice found expression. In "Diez" he sang of the serenity of midnight in a garden, "Zena" was a tender tribute paid by a peasant to the power of rebellion in his grief, the loss of a son in battle. In "Red," which concluded the cycle, he sang the soliloquy of man's fate. Particularly characteristic of his people were the four folk songs by Dookoci and Jiranek, with which he closed his solo numbers.

Bethrothal Made Known

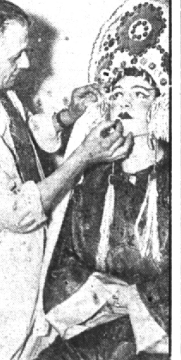

The engagement of Miss Marion Helen Mercer is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mercer of Bird avenue, to Leslie Waters, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Waters of Beudruth, England. No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Mercer attended Baldwin High School.

Limbs on a Limb

Chinese Beauty at West Point

Ab-h-h—the mystery of those Oriental eyes—the glamour of that ancient civilization—the—but why rave about a mere mat? Cadet W. R. Crawford of Hertsford, N. C., is shown above being made up as a Chinese belle by F. X. Michl for his part in "One Hundredth Night," 123rd edition of West Point's annual dramatic production. . .

The Present Day Club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Arthur Kane on Clawson road, for a social hour.

WHO ARE YOU?

The Romance of Your Name

By RUBY HASKINS ELLIS

A Howard? THE name of Howard is of Saxon origin and is one of the most ancient of all surnames. There was one Howard, or Hereward, who was living in England in the reign of King Edward, 907-923.

Sir John Howard was the grandfather of Sir Robert Howard, who made the name of Howard illustrious by his marriage to Lady Margaret Mowbray, whose line of descent was claimed from King Edward I, and through him to Philip the Bold, one time King of France. The founder of the Howard family in America was Matthew Howard, a young man who came to this country in 1810, and settled near Annapolis, Md.
