

SCUM
on your body, too!

When you see a scummy ring around your tub after a bath, you can be sure that same scum is all over your body. For that ring isn't dirt. It's a sticky, insoluble ring that is formed by the action of hard water on soap. It clings like glue to your skin and hair, clogs up your pores, shortens the life of clothes.

No amount of rinsing will remove this scum, so nothing washed in hard water ever gets really clean. But you need not put up with the discomfort and annoyance of hard water. A Permutit Water Conditioning installation attached to your household water pipe will actually remove the offending impurities from any water, not just neutralize them with chemicals.

And conditioned water is one of the most inexpensive luxuries you can enjoy, because it pays for itself in savings. Let us tell you more about it. Write for the free booklet, "The Magic of Wonders—Soft Water."

70 VOICES JOIN IN DUBOIS ORATORIO

Birmingham Oratorio Society One Of Three Big Choral Groups Participating

Music-lovers of Birmingham will be interested in a choral presentation to be held in the Baptist church Sunday at 4:30 p. m., when "The Seven Last Words" Lenten oratorio by Dubois, will be sung by a choir of 70 voices under the direction of Frederick A. Froehner.

The choir will represent three organizations including the Birmingham Oratorio Society, the Schubert Choir of Ferndale, and the choir of the Boulevard Temple, M. E. church of Detroit. Soloists in the oratorio will be Mrs. M. A. Tyson, soprano; Henry James, tenor and Walter DeFoe of Detroit, baritone. Mildred Green Hitter will play the organ accompaniment.

The oratorio represents the seven last words of Christ spoken from the Cross, and as a composition ranks among the masterpieces in oratorio work.

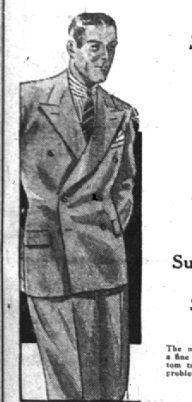

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Reeder of Puritan road and Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Danley of Linden road returned to Birmingham Tuesday after a three-week's cruise to Panama, Havana, and Jamaica.

Thrifty Housewife Knows Her Sauces

The housekeeper who is thrifty as well as a good cook knows the art of making good sauces. The most indispensable of all sauces is the white sauce; it appears throughout the menu; in soups, entrees, sauces with vegetables and sometimes as the base for desserts. Any left-overs combined with the appropriate sauce may appear to the family as a new and interesting dish.

Thin White Sauce
1 tablespoon fat
1 tablespoon flour
1 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
Use for creamed soups, bisques, purees and sauces.

Medium White Sauce
2 tablespoons fat
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
Use for creamed and scalloped mixtures and sauces.

Thick White Sauce
3 or 4 tablespoons fat
3 or 4 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon salt
Use for souffles and croquettes.

Melt the fat in a saucepan. Stir in the flour and cook until bubbling and smooth. "2 or 3 minutes." Pour in the milk, about 1-2 at a time, stirring constantly until perfectly smooth and creamy. When all the milk is added, cook the mixture over boiling water while seasoning and other ingredients are added. If after careful mixing the white sauce is lumpy, beat with a rotary beater until smooth.

Spanish Sauce
2 tablespoons fat
2 tablespoons chopped onion.
2 tablespoons chopped celery.
1-2 tablespoons flour.
1-2 cup thick tomato pulp.
Heat fat, add onion and celery and cook until delicately browned. Blend flour and stock, add the tomato pulp and combine with the fat. Chopped ham or bacon may be added.

English Curry Sauce
6 onions.
3 tablespoons fat.
1 teaspoon curry.
2 cups meat stock (or water).
1 teaspoon chopped chutney.
1 teaspoon butter.
Salt and pepper.
Chop onions fine. Melt fat in saucepan. Add onions, cover and cook very slowly until soft and browned. Pass through a fine sieve. To the puree add curry powder and stock. Simmer for 15 minutes. Thicken more if necessary with a little flour mixed to a smooth paste with cold water. Add chutney, butter, salt and pepper.

Piquant Sauce
Piquant sauce is made by adding to browned and gray 1 tablespoon of vinegar, 1 teaspoon of finely chopped pickles, Scallions.

Mock Hollandaise
2 eggs yolks.
1 cup thick white sauce.
2-1/2 tablespoons lemon juice.
Few grains cayenne.
Beat egg yolks, add to hot white sauce and mix well. Cook 2 minutes stirring constantly. Remove from fire, add lemon juice and cayenne. Serve with baked artichokes, asparagus, broccoli or cauliflower.

Orange Sauce
1-2 cup sugar.
1 tablespoon cornstarch.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
1 tablespoon vanilla.
1 egg white.
3-4 cup shredded coconut.
Scallions in double boiler. Beat egg yolks and sugar together and pour scalded milk over them. Return to scallions and cook until mixture coats spoon, stirring constantly. Add salt. Fold in stiffly beaten egg white and coconut. Cool and add vanilla. Chill.

Plane Took Off, but Tanya Didn't
